Barabudur Volumes I And II:

Suvarnavipa R.C. Majumdar, 2024-01-01 South East Asian history is one of the most unique histories as it was marked by the influences of Indic Chinese and local cultures Suvarnavipa is a two volume series which covers the political and cultural history of South East Asian history This volume deals with the cultural history of South East Asia during ancient times The author discusses literature religion art and society in greater detail which was prevalent during ancient times Works of literature composed in Java Bali and the Malay Peninsula are covered in this volume as it was written in Sanskrit Old Javanese and others It also covers the history of Buddhism mainly the Mahayana sect and Hinduism along with their religious texts before the coming of Islam The chapters on the history of art and architecture are covered comprehensively It talks about the religious and non religious structures the influence of Hindu and Buddhist arts sculpture art and different art forms practiced in Bali Sumatra Borneo Philippines and Tapanauli region This book is essential for scholars and researchers interested in the pre Islamic history of South East Asia

Alexander's Campaigns in Sind and Baluchistan and the Siege of the Brahmin Town of Harmatelia Pierre Herman Leonard Eggermont, 1975 In quest of the identification and geographical location of the Brahmin town of Harmatelia known for Alexander's siege which became a favourite literary theme throughout the Hellenistic age the author has studied this minor problem within the much wider context of the historico geographic conditions of Sind and Baluchistan about 500 B C A D 25 Starting from a well balanced assessment of the data supplied by western classic authors as well as by Indian and other oriental sources he has compared the views held by General Cunningham's contemporaries with the fresh evidence we have at our disposal nowadays such as the data collected by Aurel Stein during his archaeological reconnaissances in Baluchistan the numerous notes which W W Tarn has inserted in his papers and books on Alexander the Great and the recent geomorphological studies by the German geologist H Wilhelmy on the Indus river basin in general and the Indus delta in particular An interesting feature of this book is the new method the author has developed His interpretation is based on what he calls the Law of the strings of geographical names viz the principle according to which the early geographers listed the toponyms of towns tribes and mountains

Borobudur John Miksic, 2012-11-13 With vivid photography and insightful commentary this travel pictorial shines a light on the Buddhist art and architecture of Borobudur The glorious ninth century Buddhist stupa of Borobudur the largest Buddhist monument in the world stands in the midst of the lush Kedu Plain of Central Java in Indonesia where it is visited annually by over a million people Borobudur contains more than a thousand exquisitely carved relief panels extending along its many terraces for a total distance of more than a kilometer These are arranged so as to take the visitor on a spiritual journey to enlightenment and one ascends the monument past scenes depicting the world of desire the life story of Buddha and the heroic deeds of other enlightened beings finally arriving at the great circular terraces at the top of the structure that symbolizes the formless world of pure knowledge and perfection

Pilgrims, Patrons, and Place Phyllis Granoff, Koichi

Shinohara,2011-11-01 UBC Press is pleased to announce a new series in Asian religions Pilgrims Patrons and Place a Buddha Dharma Kyokai Foundation Book on Buddhism and Comparative Literature is the first book in this series Click here to see other titles in this series This book brings together essays by anthropologists scholars of religion and art historians on the subject of sacred place and sacred biography in Asia The chapters span a broad geographical area that includes India Nepal Thailand Indonesia and China and explore issues from the classical and medieval period to the present They show how sacred places have a plurality of meanings for all religious communities and how in their construction secular politics private religious experience and sectarian rivalry can all intersect The contributors explore some of the most fundamental challenges that religious groups face as they expand from their homeland or confront the demands of modernity In every case the biography of a saint or founding figure proves to be central to the formation of religious identity Sacred place becomes a means of concretizing the ever expanding sphere of the saint s influence While some chapters deal with well known religious movements and sites others discuss little known groups and help to enrich our understanding of the diversity of religious belief in Asia The book will be of interest not only to scholars of Asian religion and hagiography but to others who seek to understand the ways in which religious groups accommodate to the challenges of new environments and new times

History and Doctrines of the Ajivikas, a Vanished Indian Religion Arthur Llewellyn Basham,1981-01-01 The book presents the history and the Doctrines of the Ajivikas who formed a third heretical sect besides the sect of Gautama Buddha the founder of Buddhism and that of Mahavira Vardhamana the twenty fourth Tirthankara of the Jinas The three heterodox sects react against the ritualistic creed of the Vedists The cult of Ajivikas was founded by Makkhali Gosal the contemporary of Mahavira Vardhamana on the basis of strict determinism with a belief in the all embracing rule of Niyati principle of order According to Gosal It was Niyati which ultimately governed our action controlled phenomena and left no room for human volition It will through new height on an interesting and significant aspect of India s past and will encourage further research This book is divided into fifteen chapters discussing elaborately different aspects of the subject matter The comprehensive Bibliography and Index are the added features for the researchers for comparative as well as further study of yet unexplored areas The pilgrimage of Sudhana Jan Fontein,2012-06-21 No detailed description available for The pilgrimage of Sudhana

Entering the Dharmadh?tu Jan Fontein,2012-03-20 New identifications of the 460 bas reliefs of Borobudur illustrating the Gandavya based upon a comparison with the contents of three early Chinese translations of Sanskrit manuscripts of the text of Central Asian or Indian provenance The Death of Authentic Primitive Art Shelly Errington,2023-09-01 In this lucid witty and forceful book Shelly Errington argues that Primitive Art was invented as a new type of art object at the beginning of the twentieth century but that now at the century s end it has died a double but contradictory death Authenticity and primitivism both attacked by cultural critics have died as concepts At the same time the penetration of nation states the tourist industry and transnational corporations into regions that formerly produced these artifacts has severely reduced supplies of primitive art bringing about a second death Errington argues that the construction of the primitive in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and the kinds of objects chosen to exemplify it must be understood as a product of discourses of progress from the nineteenth century European narrative of technological progress to the twentieth century narrative of modernism to the late twentieth century narrative of the triumph of the free market In Part One she charts a provocative argument ranging through the worlds of museums art theorists mail order catalogs boutiques tourism and world events tracing a loosely historical account of the transformations of meanings of primitive art in this century In Part Two she explores an eclectic collection of public sites in Mexico and Indonesia a national museum of anthropology a cultural theme park an airport and a ninth century Buddhist monument newly refurbished to show how the idea of the primitive can be used in the interests of promoting nationalism and economic development Errington s dissection of discourses about progress and primitivism in the contemporary world is both a lively introduction to anthropological studies of art institutions and a dramatic new contribution to the growing field of cultural studies
