Annual Report of the Minister of Mines for the Year Ending ... British Columbia. Department of Mines, 1900 Heart of the Cariboo-Chilcotin Diana Wilson, 2007 The Heart of the Cariboo Chilcotin anthology celebrates the story of this harshly beautiful and remote region in B C s north From the days of the gold rush through to modern times this collection captures the spirit of a place whose beauty and wildness have inspired its people throughout its history BOOK JACKET The

Agricultural Journal British Columbia. Department of Agriculture, 1921 Barkerville Gold Dayle Campbell

Gaetz, 2004-04-01 This time the trio is in historic Barkerville a gold rush town with a secret Rusty Katie and Sheila are sent out of town with Rusty s grandparents to keep them out of trouble After witnessing what they take to be a ghost in the night the three friends find themselves involved in a mystery from the past that seems to have a few other people interested as well New information has come to light about a fortune in missing gold a centuries old curse and a missing miner While the three budding detectives try and figure out which of the aging prospectors they keep running into is actually a ghost they find they are in a race against time to recover the gold and return it to its rightful owners to avert a tragedy Will they find the gold in time Or will they suffer the fate of Three Finger Evans the missing miner Hiking the Cariboo Goldfields Garry

Edwards, Dorothea Funk, Ken Stoker, 2002 Follow the 1861 Gold Rush Pack Trail in the footsteps of those determined miners who first discovered the riches of the Cariboo Hike the Historic Goat River Trail originally cleared in 1886 and since restored as a 91 kilometre long hiking trail between the upper Fraser River and Bowron Lake Provincial Park Follow the route between Barkerville and Wells through Stout s Gulch and Lowhee Creek for a fascinating look at the impact of hydraulic mining or climb one of the surrounding peaks for a spectacular view of goldfields country and the Cariboo Mountains to the east This guide features accurate trail maps user friendly trail descriptions and interesting information about the natural and historical landscape you are passing through Cover Adventure Roads of BC's Northwest Heartland Liz

Bryan, 2022-06-14 An off the beaten track exploration of Interior BC full of scenic photography maps and fascinating information for tourists and armchair travellers alike From lush forests to majestic mountains sleepy ghost towns to pastoral farmland Adventure Roads of BC s Northwest Heartland captures the beauty history and unexpected twists and turns of a region often overlooked by tourists and ideal for would be road trippers Fuelled by the philosophy that any road can lead to adventure not always of the visceral sort but of the mind and heart travel writer historian and photographer Liz Bryan takes readers on a virtual tour Taking scenic routes from Merritt to Barkerville Kamloops to Bella Coola and into the valleys of the Bulkley and Skeena Rivers Bryan tells the story of this land its peoples and their history With stunning photography and fascinating prose this book will compel anyone to follow their own adventure road wherever it may take them The Gold Crusades Douglas Fetherling, 1997-12-15 Among the hordes of starry eyed argonauts who flocked to the California gold rush of 1849 was an Australian named Edward Hargraves He left America empty handed only to find gold in his own backyard The result was the great Australian rush of the 1850s which also attracted participants from around the world A South African named P J Marais was one of them Marais too returned home in defeat only to set in motion the diamond and gold rushes that transformed southern Africa And so it went Most previous historians of the gold rushes have tended to view them as acts of spontaneous nationalism Each country likes to see its own gold rush as the one that either shaped those that followed or epitomized all the rest In The Gold Crusades A Social History of Gold Rushes 1849-1929 Douglas Fetherling takes a different approach Fetherling argues that the gold rushes in the United States Canada Australia New Zealand and South Africa shared the same causes and results the same characters and characteristics He posits that they were in fact a single discontinuous event an expression of the British imperial experience and nineteenth century liberalism He does so with dash and style and with a sharp eye for the telling anecdote the out of the way document and the bold connection between seemingly unrelated disciplines Originally published by Macmillan of Canada 1988

Moses, Me, and Murder Ann

Walsh, 2013-05-25 It s 1866 in Barkerville British Columbia and a man has disappeared Ted MacIntosh learns from the local barber Moses that his friend Charles has failed to arrive in town What happened to him Slowly Ted and Moses unravel the story of a cruel murder

From Denmark to the Cariboo Linda Peterat, 2022-11-02 A captivating account of the lives of Laura Christine and Caroline Lindhard three sisters who left their home in Stege Denmark in 1870 due to war political turmoil and limited opportunities and sought out new lives in the Cariboo region of British Columbia There are few stories of entrepreneurial business class women in nineteenth century BC They didn t keep diaries or save letters like the ruling class women often did and they were usually overlooked in newspaper reports Yet many came into British Columbia in the early years of the gold rush and helped build and sustain the developing communities This book tells the stories of three sisters Laura Christine and Caroline Lindhard who arrived in BC from Denmark in the 1870s Coming of age in Europe the Lindhard sisters had aspirations that were restricted by societal norms about what women could and should be and do This is a story of how each of the sisters made a life for themselves marrying and having children becoming single parents at an early age marrying again or not working together providing for their children and making choices that set them on different paths

While their lives diverged at various points their commitments to each other and the next generation remained strong The sisters stories illustrate the importance of family and community relationships as support structures for women entrepreneurs who combine family responsibilities with earning a living While they were not heroic in the traditional patriarchal sense of the word the Lindhard sisters were powerful influential members of their families and their community and their lives reveal much about the complex social fabric of early British Columbia and the unsung contributions of women
