roman

B O R É A L
C O M P A C T

A painting of a busy city street scene. In the foreground, several people are walking on a sidewalk. A woman in a purple coat and hat is on the left, carrying a bag. A man in a dark coat and hat is in the center. A woman in a red coat and hat is on the right. In the background, there are buildings, a bus, and trees. The scene is set in a city with a mix of old and new architecture.

Alexandre Chenevert Gabrielle Roy, 1995 the theme of urban alienation is articulated through the figure of a lonely bank clerk The New Oxford Companion to Literature in French quoted in Answers com The Literary Vision of Gabrielle Roy Paula Gilbert Lewis, 1984 Between Languages and Cultures Rosemary Chapman, 2009 Gabrielle Roy and the creative ambivalence of bilingualism Encounters with Quebec Susan L. Rosenstreich, 1998 Examines works of Qu b cois narrative fiction from a variety of perspectives Aphorism in the Francophone Novel of the Twentieth Century Mark Bell, 1997 In this exploration of twentieth century novels written in French Mark Bell defines aphorism as a literary genre and demonstrates how it is used in seven texts that provide a cross section of ideological stances and francophone communities

Women's Writing in Canada Patricia Demers, Equivocal City Patrick Coleman, 2018-10-30 The study of Montreal as a specific location in French and English writings has long been subordinated to the demands of linguistically divided and politically contentious narratives about national development In this cross linguistic study Patrick Coleman models an inclusive and post national literary history of the city itself Tracing a sequence of moments in the emergence of the Montreal novel from World War II to the turbulent 1960s Equivocal City offers close readings of fourteen key works of fiction focusing on the inner dynamic of their construction as well as the unexpected convergences and contrasts in the narrative structures they adopt and the aesthetic perspective they seek to achieve Critically sophisticated but accessibly written this book gives a sympathetic account of how writers in both languages struggled to give integrated artistic expression to their experience of a city that was still linguistically compartmentalized and culturally insecure By analyzing the interplay between story and narrative form the book explores what French and English novelists could and could not imagine about the Montreal they sought to portray From the responsible realism of Hugh MacLennan and Gabrielle Roy to the fractious phantasmagorias of Jacques Ferron and Leonard Cohen Equivocal City traces the evolution of the Montreal novel with the aim of retrieving a shareable literary past Major Canadian Authors David Stouck, 1988-01-01 Canadian literature in English presents a wealth of imaginative experience that belies the colonial status sometimes accorded the world's second largest country This revised and expanded edition of Major Canadian Authors provides an entrance into that realm Stouck's carefully integrated essays introduce the life and writings of eighteen foremost Canadian authors including Robertson Davies Margaret Laurence Sinclair Ross and Alice Munro The second edition adds a new chapter on Margaret Atwood updates the text and expands the reference guide to include more than sixty Canadian authors Legacy Andre Pratte, Jonathan Kay, 2016-11-08 A ground breaking work of nation building this unique biographical book by many of English and French Canada's best known writers and thinkers Margaret Atwood Lucien Bouchard Dr Samantha Nutt Ken Dryden etc tells the story of the extraordinary legacy of the French contribution to our very way of life In 1913 schoolgirls found a heavy metal plaque peeking out of the soil in St Pierre South Dakota On it they saw engraved characters and signs they could not decipher They took the plaque back home and somehow it found its way into the hands of a local historian who immediately realized the importance of the artifact One hundred and seventy years earlier French Canadian explorer Pierre Gaultier de la V rendrye had written about his travels to the west in search of the elusive Western Sea In his journal he remembered I placed upon a hillock near the fort a lead plaque with the arms and inscription of the King That was the plaque found by the children the proof that de la V rendrye was the first white man to set eyes on the Rockies 60 years before Lewis and Clark s famous expedition Traces of the French Canadians contribution to North American history can be found in all regions of the continent More often than not we are unaware of or indifferent towards these signs Yet the descendants of the French travelled farther than one would expect exploring the land and a wide variety of fields of human activity science arts economy etc Through their audacity their courage and their determination they shaped Canada and to a smaller but still significant extent the United States In a unique partnership with Les ditions La Presse Legacy is the story of a dozen French Canadian pioneers from the era of Nouvelle France up to the 20th century This ambitious book project will take the form of a series of biographical essays written by Canadian personalities and leading authors Through the lives of these extraordinary persons the authors will reflect on the French Canadian legacy They are all convinced that Canada would not be what it is today were it not for these French speaking Canadians who explored the land hung on to their culture while respecting that of others longed for peace fought with courage and stood up for a brand of humanism that helped shape the country we live in today Curative Illnesses Julie Robert,2016-02-18 A necessary second opinion on the national implications of an epidemic of sick literary characters
