Traces the history of the United States from the arrival of the first Indians to the present day A History of the United States Joseph Robert Conlin,1986 Literature Suppressed on Political Grounds Nicholas J. Karolides,Margaret Bald,2014-05-14 Literature Suppressed on Religious Grounds Revised Edition profiles the censorship of many such essential works of literature The entries new to this edition include extensive coverage of the Harry Potter series which has been frequently banned in the United States on the grounds that it promotes witchcraft as well as entries on two popular textbook series The Witches by Roald Dahl Women Without Men A Novel of Modern Iran and more Also included are updates to such entries as The Satanic Verses by Salman Rushdie and On the Origin of Species by Charles Darwin Religion and American Education Warren A. Nord,2014-07-01 Warren Nord s thoughtful book tackles an issue of great importance in contemporary America the role of religion in our public schools and universities According to Nord public opinion has been excessively polarized by those religious conservatives who would restore religious purposes and practices to public education and by those secular liberals for whom religion is irrelevant to everything in the curriculum While he maintains that public schools and universities must not promote religion he also argues that there are powerful philosophical political moral and constitutional reasons for requiring students to study religion Indeed only if religion is included in the curriculum will students receive a truly liberal education one that takes seriously a variety of ways of understanding the human experience Intended for a broad audience Nord s comprehensive study encompasses American history constitutional law educational theory and practice theology philosophy and ethics It also discusses a number of current controversial issues including multiculturalism moral education creationism academic freedom and the voucher and school choice movements American Memories Joachim J. Savelsberg,Ryan D. King,2011-09-01 In the long history of warfare and cultural and ethnic violence the twentieth century was exceptional for producing institutions charged with seeking accountability or redress for violent offenses and human rights abuses across the globe often forcing nations to confront the consequences of past atrocities The Holocaust ended with trials at Nuremberg apartheid in South Africa concluded with the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and the Gacaca courts continue to strive for closure in the wake of the Rwandan genocide Despite this global trend toward accountability American collective memory appears distinct in that it tends to glorify the nation s past celebrating triumphs while eliding darker episodes in its history In American Memories sociologists Joachim Savelsberg and Ryan King rigorously examine how the United States remembers its own and others atrocities and how institutional responses to such crimes including trials and tribunals may help shape memories and perhaps impede future violence American Memories uses historical and media accounts court records and survey research to examine a number of atrocities from the nation s past including the massacres of civilians by U S military in My Lai Vietnam and Haditha Iraq The book shows that when states initiate responses to such violence via criminal trials tribunals or reconciliation hearings they lay important groundwork for how such atrocities are viewed in the future Trials can serve to delegitimize violence even by a nation's military by creating a public record of grave offenses But the law is filtered by and must also compete with other institutions such as the media and historical texts in shaping American memory Savelsberg and King show for example how the My Lai slayings of women children and elderly men by U S soldiers have been largely eliminated from or misrepresented in American textbooks and the army's reputation survived the episode untarnished The American media nevertheless evoked the killings at My Lai in response to the murder of twenty four civilian Iraqis in Haditha during the war in Iraq Since only one conviction was obtained for the My Lai massacre and convictions for the killings in Haditha seem increasingly unlikely Savelsberg and King argue that Haditha in the near past is now bound inextricably to My Lai in the distant past With virtually no criminal convictions and none of higher ranks for either massacre both events will continue to be misrepresented in American memory In contrast the book examines American representations of atrocities committed by foreign powers during the Balkan wars which entailed the prosecution of ranking military and political leaders The authors analyze news accounts of the war's events and show how articles based on diplomatic sources initially cast Serbian President Slobodan Milosevic in a less negative light but court based accounts increasingly portrayed Milosevic as a criminal solidifying his image for the public record American Memories provocatively suggests that a nation's memories don't just develop as a rejoinder to events they are largely shaped by institutions In the wake of atrocities how a state responds has an enduring effect and provides a moral framework for whether and how we remember violent transgressions Savelsberg and King deftly show that such responses can be instructive for how to deal with large scale violence in the future and hopefully how to deter it A Volume in the American Sociological Association's Rose Series in Sociology Literature Suppressed on Political Grounds, Fourth Edition Nicholas Karolides, 2019-08-01 Throughout history tyrants totalitarian states church institutions and democratic governments alike have banned books that challenged their assumptions or questioned their activities Political suppression also occurs in the name of security and the safeguarding of official secrets and is often used as a weapon in larger cultural or political battles Literature Suppressed on Political Grounds Fourth Edition illustrates the extent and frequency of such censorship in nearly every form of writing Entries include Animal Farm George Orwell The Appointment Herta and Paul Amirson Collection Born on the Fourth of July Ron Kovic Burger's Daughter Nadine Gordimer Cancer Ward Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn Doctor Zhivago Boris Pasternak The Fugitive Pramoedya Ananta Toer Girls of Riyadh Rajaa Alsanea The Grapes of Wrath John Steinbeck Gulliver's Travels Jonathan Swift The Hate U Give Angie Thomas The Jungle Upton Sinclair Kiss of the Spider Woman Manuel Puig Manifesto of the Communist Party Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels Les Misérables Victor Hugo Mein Kampf Adolf Hitler Slaughterhouse Five Kurt Vonnegut Jr Snow Orhan Pamuk The Struggle Is My Life Nelson Mandela The Things They Carried Tim O'Brien The
