A Killer Comes To Shilo:

The Colors of Love and Autumn Lee Pulaski, 2010-08-24 Shilo David still stinging from the lengthy and bitter breakup with a previous lover flees to the quiet woods in Eagle River Wisconsin. There he hopes to find solace amongst the color of the trees and foliage and possibly rediscover his inspiration and creative spark. He winds up finding much more. Jeffrey Layton who has lived in Eagle River for many years is also on the rebound after losing a boyfriend. However his mate was taken from him by cancer. Jeffrey is apprehensive about leaping into another relationship for fear his next true love will also be snatched from his grasp. Then he meets Shilo. Together the two learn love is an emotion to be embraced not spurned and it's possible to find the person you're meant to be with even when the cards are stacked against you. Shilo learns it's sometimes necessary to kiss a few toads before you find your prince while Jeffrey discovers he has it in him to love another while still caring for those who have left. In this tale love has no boundaries and not even the changing hues of the leaves in the forest can compete with true happiness.

Updating the Literary West, 1997 Western writers says Thomas J. Lyon in his epilogue to Updating the Literary West have grown up with the frontier myth but now find themselves in the early stages of creating a new western myth. The editors of the Literary History of the American West TCU Press 1987 hoped that the first volume would begin not conclude their exploration of the West's literary heritage. Out of this hope comes Updating the Literary West a comprehensive reference anthology including essays by over one hundred scholars. A selected bibliography is included with each piece. In the ten years since publication of LHAW western writing has developed a significantly larger presence in the national literary stream. A variety of cultural viewpoints have developed along with new tactics for literary study. New authors have risen to prominence and the range of subjects has changed and widened. Updating the Literary West looks at topics ranging from western classics to cowboys and Cadillacs and considers children's literature, ethnicity, environmental writing, gender issues and other topics in which change has been rapid since publication of LHAW. This volume again affirms the West's literary legitimacy status hard earned by the Western Literary Association and the lasting place of popular western writing as part of the growing and changing literary and American experience. An excellent reference for a wide range of readers and an invaluable resource for scholars and libraries. Selected list of contributors: James Maguire, Fred Erisman, Susan J. Rosowski, Gerald Haslam, Tom Pilkington, A. Carl Bredahl, Richard Slotkin, John G. Cawelti, Robert F. Gish, Ann Ronald, Mick McAllister.

Arkansas Libraries, 1982 Who's who in Entertainment, 1989 The Complete Directory of Large Print Books & Serials, 1994 Large Print Holdings of the Public Libraries in Great River Library System, 1990 The Man With The Black Dog Mario Cesare, 2011-11-14 They say a man has only one dog in his lifetime only one dog with which he will share that special bond. Mario Cesare was twenty-five years old and managing a game reserve in the rugged Tuli Block in Botswana when he first took possession of a shy black pup that he named Shilo. The pup attached himself to Mario almost immediately and very soon he became known by the locals as The Man with the Black Dog. Very few dogs that live in Africa's big game country die of old age but Shilo was the exception that proved the rule Shilo's incredible versatility ranged from skilfully tracking big game in the hot arid bushveld to retrieving wild fowl in the icy wetlands of South Africa He was also a constant companion a devoted protector and for more than fourteen years he and Mario had innumerable adventures together encountering crocodiles buffalo lion leopard baboons and poachers The Man with the Black Dog is permeated with the same love and empathy that made Jock of the Bushveld a classic and it too is a very South African story Seldom has an account of a man and his dog revealed so much of the flavour of life in such a wild location and although over a century has passed since the transport wagons carved their trails to and from Delagoa Bay the scent evoked of dust and rain remains the same and the grey ghosts of kudu and elephant still melt into the bush
