A Holythroat Symposium:

A Holythroat Symposium Aaron Williamson, 1993 The Analysis of Performance Art Anthony Howell, A. Howell, 2013-11-05 This finely illustrated book offers a simple yet comprehensive grammar of a new discipline Performance Art first became popular in the fifties when artists began creating happenings Since then the artist as a performer has challenged many of the accepted rules of the theatre and radically altered our notion of what constitutes visual art This is the first publication to outline the essential characteristics of the field and to put forward a method for teaching the subject as a discipline distinct from dance drama painting or sculpture Taking the theory of primary and secondary colours as his model Anthony Howell posits three primaries of action and shows how these may be mixed to obtain a secondary range of actions Based on a taught course the system is designed for practical use in the studio and is also entertaining to explore Examples are cited from leading performance groups and practitioners such as Bobbie Baker Orlan Stelarc Annie Sprinkle Robert Wilson Goat Island and Station House Opera This volume however is not just an illustrated grammar of action it also shows how the syntax of that grammar has psychoanalytic repercussions This enables the performer to relate the system to lived experience ensuring a realisation that meaning is being dealt with through these actions and that the system set forth is more than a dry structuring of the characteristics of movement Freud's notion of transference and Lacan's understanding of repetition are compared to a performer's usage of the same terms Thus the book provides a psychoanalytic critique of performance at the same time as it outlines an efficient method for creating live work on both fine art and theatre courses

The State of the Art Michael Anderson, Colleen Roche, 2015-04-30 The State of the Art Teaching Drama in the 21st Century presents cutting edge scholarship from leading drama education researchers in New South Wales This collection features discussions that are directly relevant to drama teachers in primary and secondary schools artists and theatre makers and drama education researchers Playing in a House of Mirrors Elinor Vettraino, Warren Linds, 2015-07-27 This book explores the concept of reflection through a dramaturgical lens as practitioners in a wide range of disciplines hold up the mirror to their own practice using theatre and theatricality as a way of unpacking their individual and collective practice Editors and authors consider the use of drama as the vehicle through which learning takes place for the leader facilitator or manager of an experience rather than the use of drama and theatre as a tool for learning subject content Reflective practice is an often cited term in the professional thesaurus of educators social work practitioners and health care workers It is perhaps less commonly thought of as the purview of leaders of industry marketing managers and scientists We define reflective practice in this context as the development of capacities to reflect on actions behaviours and attitudes that impact on your own practice or on the way others engage in their practice so as to be part of a process of continuous learning It is therefore crucial for any professional to understand how and why we behave and interact with others the way we do

Reimagining Sustainability in Precarious Times Karen Malone, Son Truong, Tonia Gray, 2017-01-17 This book reflects the considerable appeal of the Anthropocene and the way it stimulates new discussions and ideas for reimagining sustainability and its place in education in these precarious times The authors explore these new imaginings for sustainability using varying theoretical perspectives in order to consider innovative ways of engaging with concepts that are now influencing the field of sustainability and education Through their theoretical analysis research and field work the authors explore novel approaches to designing sustainability and sustainability education These approaches although diverse in focus all highlight the complex interdependencies of the human and more than human world and by unpacking binaries such as human nature nature culture subject object and de centring the human expose the complexities of an entangled human nature relation that are shaping our understanding of sustainability These messy relations challenge the well versed mantras of anthropocentric exceptionalism in sustainability and sustainability education and offer new questions rather than answers for researchers educators and practitioners to explore As working with new theoretical lenses is not always easy this book also highlights the authors methods for approaching these ideas and imaginings
