A History of Sports Highlights Ray Gamache, 2014-01-10 This book traces the development and popularity of the sportscast highlight the dominant news frame in the crowded medium of electronic sports journalism as the primary means of communicating about sports and athletes It explores the intricate relationships among media producers sports leagues and organizations and audiences and explains that sportscast highlights are not a recent development given their prominent use within a news context in every medium from early news film actualities and newsreels to network and cable television to today's new media platforms North Carolina Libraries, 1990 The North Carolina Historical Review, 2009 The Oxford Handbook of Sports History Robert Edelman, Wayne Wilson, 2017 Practiced and watched by billions sport is a global phenomenon Sport history is a burgeoning sub field that explores sport in all forms to help answer fundamental questions that scholars examine This volume provides a reference for sport scholars and an accessible introduction to those who are new to the sub field

Sports in Lincoln County Jason L. Harpe, 2007 Since 1900 the lure of roaring crowds bitter rivalries and team spirit has occupied a significant place in the social history of Lincolnton and Lincoln County This tradition began at Horseshoe Park where local baseball teams played against opponents from Lenoir Morganton and the mountains of North Carolina Over time leagues grew in popularity and teams were added from Boger and Crawford and Glenn Mills as well as high school teams Teams such as the Lincolnton Cardinals and Lincolnton Red Sox left lasting legacies The Lincoln County Sports Hall of Fame ensures that the athletes of a bygone era will always be remembered and they can continue to serve as inspiration for future generations of sports players and fans American Sports Pamela Grundy, Benjamin G Rader, 2016-06-16 American Sports offers a reflective analytical history of American sports from the colonial era to the present Readers will focus on the diverse relationships between sports and class gender race ethnicity religion and region and understand how these interactions can bind diverse groups together By considering the economic social and cultural factors that have surrounded competitive sports readers will understand how sports have reinforced or challenged the values and behaviors of society Through the Hoop (1979) Tema Okun, Peter Wood, Bob Hall, Chris Mayfield, Marc Miller, Jim Overton, Joe Pfister, Kathleen Zobel, Through the Hoop To arc a jump shot through the orange rim to tap in a rebound putting the ball through the hoop represents a transcendent moment in basketball for player team and crowd Such a moment exists in every sport But to enjoy it fans and athletes alike are often forced through other kinds of hoops Sports can be violent lonely poetic painful uplifting It can breed fitness or injury sufficiency or dependence pride or prejudice friendship or hostility When does the discipline of sport become dangerous obedience When does self mastery become self aggrandizement When does athletic activity cease to be empowering for the participants and fans to become an exercise of power over us Answers to such questions are hard to find Sports unlike most topics previously addressed in special issues of Southern Exposure labor women folk life health prisons has never had a network of informed progressives working outside the established channels posing critical questions offering insightful direction for our thinking and doing Trusted commentators and friends who know where they stand and why with regard to other central aspects of our culture shy away from giving serious thought to sport As a result many of us are left with personal confusions brought on by alternating experiences of frustration and fulfillment How do we talk about a subject that on the one hand can be so easily criticized for abuses and on the other hand remains so compelling How do we effectively criticize the sports establishment that manages ACC basketball or NFL football when we find ourselves glued to the set at playoff time
