Poor in Portuguese Cinema of the 1930s and 1940s Michael Colvin,2016 A compelling account of the role of Fado and the fadista in Portuguese film and the wider culture Colvin studies the evolution of Fado music as the soundtrack to the Portuguese talkie He analyzes the most successful Portuguese films of the first two decades of the Estado Novo era showing how directors used the national song to promote the values of the young Regime regarding the poor inhabitants of Lisbon s popular neighborhoods He considers the aesthetic technological and social advances that accompany the progress of the Estado Novo Futurism the development of sound film the inception of national radio broadcast access to the automobile and urban renewal within a historical context that considers Portugal s global profile at the time of Ant nio de Oliveira Salazar s rise to power and the inauguration of Ant nio Ferro s Secretariado da Propaganda Nacional Portugal s role as a secret ally of the Falange during the Spanish Civil War Lisbon s role as a neutral refuge during World War II and the Portuguese colonial empire as an anachronism in the post World War II years Colvin argues that Portuguese directors have exploited the growing popularity of the Fado and Lisbon s fadistas to dissuade citizens from alien values that promote individual ambitions and the notion of an easy life of poverty in the capital As the public image of the Fado evolves the fadista s role in film becomes more prominent and eventually the fadista is the protagonist and the Fado the principal concern of national film The author exposes the irony that as the social profile of the Lisbon fadista improves with the international fame of singer Amália Rodrigues Portuguese film perpetuates and validates the outdated characterization of the fadista as a social pariah that Leitão de Barros proposed in the first Portuguese talkie A Severa 1931 Michael Colvin is Associate Professor of Hispanic Studies at Marymount Manhattan College The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Music and Culture Janet Sturman, 2019-02-26 The SAGE Encyclopedia of Music and Culture presents key concepts in the study of music in its cultural context and provides an introduction to the discipline of ethnomusicology its methods concerns and its contributions to knowledge and understanding of the world's musical cultures styles and practices The diverse voices of contributors to this encyclopedia confirm ethnomusicology's fundamental ethos of inclusion and respect for diversity Combined the multiplicity of topics and approaches are presented in an easy to search A-Z format and offer a fresh perspective on the field and the subject of music in culture Key features include Approximately 730 signed articles authored by prominent scholars are arranged A to Z and published in a choice of print or electronic editions Pedagogical elements include Further Readings and Cross References to conclude each article and a Reader's Guide in the front matter organizing entries by broad topical or thematic areas Back matter includes an annotated Resource Guide to further research journals books and associations an appendix listing notable archives libraries and museums and a detailed Index The Index Reader's Guide themes and Cross References combine for thorough search and browse capabilities in the electronic edition Bloomsbury Encyclopedia of Popular Music of the World, Volume 11 David Horn, 2017-10-05 See Postmodernity's Musical Pasts Tina Frühauf, 2020 Postmodernity's Musical Pasts covers topics from classical to popular and neo traditional musics to concerns of the disciplines of musicology Such varied topics mirror the eclectic and diverse nature of the postwar era itself The Reconstruction of Lisbon Michael Colvin, 2008 This text exposes how Fado lyricists have appropriated popular novelist and playwright Julio Dantas forging of Mouraria fadista prostitute Maria Severa as a national heroine and the Fado as Portugal's national song to manifest a sub rosa criticism of the Estado Novo's demolition of the Mouraria between the 1930s and 1970s
