SIMPLE WAYS TO RELIEVE Stress & Anxiety

Exercising regularly is good for both your physical and mental health. Just 30 minutes a day is all it takes to see smaller amounts of stress hormones in your blood. Exercise also helps you feel good and lets you relax.

Using lavender oil or burning a scented candle can reduce feelings of anxiety and stress. Try this if you're having trouble sleeping.

Lean on friends, family, or support groups. They will lend comfort in sharing your feelings and concerns while also gaining perspective.

Reflect on what makes you happy. Reading, a book, a podcast, listening to your favorite song, watching TV, going to the gym, taking time for yourself, and find ways to let your mind relax.

Students are realizing the need to become more autonomous, parents are having to become more present and teachers are assuming new roles in virtual education. Although this new era of education is marked by innovation at all levels, most of these changes have not been thoroughly planned or structured, thus creating a difficult experience for all the educational stakeholders. Impact of Digital Transformation in Teacher Training Models conducts a critical discussion on teacher preparedness in the digital transformation of teaching practices. It promotes practitioner reflections on the role of institutional policies, teacher digital literacy, the digital divide and how the ongoing digital transformation of society will induce the need for a paradigm shift in teacher training models. Covering topics such as emergency remote education, emerging pedagogies and massive open online courses, this book is an essential resource for policymakers, government officials, education administration, pre-service teachers, educators, researchers and academicians.
