Open Secret Elliot R. Wolfson, 2012 Mena em Mendel Schneerson 1902 1994 was the seventh and seemingly last Rebbe of the Habad Lubavitch dynasty Marked by conflicting tendencies Schneerson was a radical messianic visionary who promoted a conservative political agenda a reclusive contemplative who built a hasidic sect into an international movement and a man dedicated to the exposition of mysteries who nevertheless harbored many secrets Schneerson astutely masked views that might be deemed heterodox by the canons of orthodoxy while engineering a fundamentalist ideology that could subvert traditional gender hierarchy the halakhic distinction between permissible and forbidden and the social anthropological division between Jew and Gentile While most literature on the Rebbe focuses on whether or not he identified with the role of Messiah Elliot R Wolfson a leading scholar of Jewish mysticism and the phenomenology of religious experience concentrates instead on Schneerson's apocalyptic sensibility and his promotion of a mystical consciousness that undermines all discrimination For Schneerson the ploy of secrecy is crucial to the dissemination of the messianic secret To be enlightened messianically is to be delivered from all conceptual limitations even the very notion of becoming emancipated from limitation The ultimate liberation or true and complete redemption fuses the believer into an infinite essence beyond all duality even the duality of being emancipated and not emancipated an emancipation in other words that emancipates one from the bind of emancipation At its deepest level Schneerson's eschatological orientation discerned that a spiritual master if he be true must dispose of the mask of mastery Situating Habad's thought within the evolution of kabbalistic mysticism the history of Western philosophy and Mahayana Buddhism Wolfson articulates Schneerson's rich theology and profound philosophy concentrating on the nature of apophatic embodiment semiotic materiality hypernomian transvaluation nondifferentiated alterity and atemporal temporality
