Cucinella, 2010-04-26 Poetics of the Body examines representations of the body in the work of four important twentieth-century poets Edna St Vincent Millay Elizabeth Bishop Marilyn Chin and Marilyn Hacker Drawing on both past and present discussions regarding the place of the body in relation to Western philosophy gender sexuality desire creative production and narrative this study reveals how the poetic bodies in the poetry of these women negotiate the intersecting ideologies that attempt to regulate the body its characteristics and its behaviors Ultimately this dynamic book considers what it means to possess a body No Regrets, Inspirational Poems for the Mind! Body! & Soul! Peter J. Manosh, 2009-04 If you could turn back time who would you be Once a question posed of me I answered back I would be who I am today Do you have any regrets you'd like to say Another question that was asked of me No Regrets Inspirational Poems for the Mind Body Soul is a book filled with poems of nature of beauty of love and of life Each poem reflects experiences in the author's life his memories and his feelings No Regrets Inspirational Poems for the Mind Body Soul is written in a way that anyone can place themselves into a poem and experience emotions and memories and to have a moment in time they can call their own Body-Poetics of the Virgin Mary Jane Petkovic, 2021-05-25 The Judeo-Christian scriptures understand humans as being made in the image of God What exactly does this mean Basic agreement is that it means humans can only know and understand themselves in relation to God If however this God is pure uncreated spirit where does human embodiment fit in Is it an obstacle to understanding Or is it in some way instructive John Paul II comes down decisively in favor of the body's value and importance In his catechetical series widely known as the Theology of the Body John Paul II analyzes what is distinctive about human beings He undertakes a reading of the body This book reflects on John Paul II's interpretation extending his findings to the Virgin Mary Her specifically female maternal body is seen to offer insights into how the body images God in how it speaks The transformations of the female body parallel the transformations of language in poetry The reconfigurations and accommodations of the gestational body are this book suggests poetic incarnations of God likeness Body Poetics of the Virgin Mary offers a Mariological slant on theological anthropology and a new way to think of how humans poetically image God Immortality and the Body in the Age of Milton John Rumrich, Stephen M. Fallon, 2018-03-01 Seventeenth century England teemed with speculation on body and its relation to soul Descartes dualist certainty was countered by materialisms whether mechanist or vitalist The most important and distinctive literary reflection of this ferment is John Milton's vitalist or animist materialism which underwrites the cosmic worlds of Paradise Lost In a time of philosophical upheaval and innovation Milton and an unusual collection of fascinating and diverse contemporary writers including John Donne Margaret Cavendish John Bunyan and Hester Pulter addressed the potency of the body now viewed not as a drag on the immaterial soul or a site of embarrassment but as an occasion for heroic striving and a vehicle of transcendence This collection addresses embodiment in relation to the immortal longings of early modern writers variously abetted by the new science print culture and the Copernican upheaval of the heavens The Body and the Soul in Medieval Literature Piero Boitani, Anna Torti, 1999 The theme of the body and soul relationship in medieval texts and in modern reworkings of medieval matter is explored in the articles here specifically the representation of the body in romance the relevance of bawdy tales to the cultural experience of authors and readers in the middle ages the function of despair or melancholy in medieval and Renaissance literature and the political significance of late medieval representations of bodies in the chroniclers accounts of the Rising and in Gower's poems Two articles are devoted to modern retellings of medieval themes John Foxe's Acts and Monuments seen in relation to the traditional acta martyrum and the medieval revival in Tory Britain exemplified in Douglas Oliver's The Infant and the Pearl Contributors PAMELA JOSEPH BENSON NIGEL S THOMPSON JON WHITMAN JEROME MANDEL BARBARA NOLAN YASUNARI TAKADA YVETTE MARCHAND ROBERT F YEAGER JOERG O FICHTE JOHN KERRIGAN English Class 12

Pickens,2014-02-05 In the increasingly multi racial and multi ethnic American landscape of the present understanding and bridging dynamic cross cultural conversations about social and political concerns becomes a complicated humanistic project How do everyday embodied experiences transform from being anecdotal to having social and political significance What can the experience of corporeality offer social and political discourse And how does that discourse change when those bodies belong to Arab Americans and African Americans Ther A Pickens discusses a range of literary cultural and archival material where narratives emphasize embodied experience to examine how these experiences constitute Arab Americans and African Americans as social and political subjects Pickens argues that Arab American and African American narratives rely on the body s fragility rather than its exceptional strength or emotion to create urgent social and political critiques The creators of these narratives find potential in mundane experiences such as breathing touch illness pain and death Each chapter in this book focuses on one of these everyday embodied experiences and examines how authors mobilize that fragility to create social and political commentary Pickens discusses how the authors focus on quotidian experiences complicates their critiques of the nation state domestic and international politics exile cultural mores and the medical establishment New Body Politics participates in a vibrant interdisciplinary conversation about cross ethnic studies American literature and Arab American literature Using intercultural analysis Pickens explores issues of the body and representation that will be relevant to fields as varied as Political Science African American Studies Arab American Studies and Disability Studies
