Body Hate A Gay Mans Struggle With Multiple Scle:

Body Hate William Cate, 2012-03-21 LONG TIME AGO BOOKS presents a new affordable edition of William Cate's autobiography about his ordeal when first struck with Multiple Sclerosis. The young musician belonged to a punk rock band of the 1990s and lived an open life as a gay man. Suddenly his world was upside down. Queers, Bis, and Straight Lies Meredith Worthen, 2020-03-16 Though there have been great advances for LGBTQ people in recent years stigma intolerance and prejudice remain. Queers Bis and Straight Lies: An Intersectional Examination of LGBTQ Stigma offers an in depth exploration of LGBTQ negativity through its ground breaking use of Norm Centered Stigma Theory NCST the first ever theory about stigma that is both testable and well positioned in existing stigma scholarship. Based on research with more than 3 000 respondents hetero cis normativity and intersectionality are highlighted as fundamental in understanding separate but interconnected discussions about LGBTQ individuals experiences with discrimination harassment and violence. With chapters dedicated to lesbian women gay men bisexual women bisexual men trans women trans men non binary genderqueer people queer women and queer men Queers Bis and Straight Lies brings together empirically driven findings that work toward dismantling straight lies in an innovative and impactful manner. Through its novel and critical approach Queers Bis and Straight Lies is the ideal resource for those who want to learn about LGBTQ stigma more broadly and for those who seek a nuanced theory driven and intersectional examination of how LGBTQ prejudices and prejudicial experiences differ by gender identity sexual identity race ethnicity and class. Documenting Gay Men Christopher Pullen, 2015-02-28 This book charts an evolution in gay identity within American reality television and documentary film. Through focusing on the performative potential of gay men it examines the emergence of the independent gay citizen as a bold new voice rejecting subjugation within the media. Through examining productions as diverse as An American Family Tongues United Silverlake Life The Real World Paternal Instinct Trembling Before G D Queer Eye for the Straight Guy and many others this book explores how gay people as teens devoted couples parents inspiring individuals and influential producers have contributed to the progression of gay identity in domestic arenas. These portrayals are played out while discussing AIDS race religion the development of same sex family forms the issues of procreation and gay marriage and the changing views of gay men as both creative producers and responsible social agents. In these forms of entertainment gay social actors as political agents challenge dominant ideas and invent new social worlds. Interconnecting the Violences of Men Kate Seymour, Bob Pease, Sofia Strid, Jeff Hearn, 2024-11-04 This book aims to expand and enrich understandings of violences by focusing on gendered continuities interconnections and intersections across multiple forms and manifestations of men's violence. In actively countering both the compartmentalisation of studies of violence by type and form and the tendency to conceptualise violence narrowly it aims to flesh out not delimit understandings of violence. Bringing together cross disciplinary indeed transdisciplinary perspectives this book addresses how what are often seen as specific and separate

violences connect closely and intricately with wider understandings of violence how there are gendered continuities between violences and how gendered violences take many forms and manifestations and are themselves intersectional Grounded by the recognition that violence is itself a form of inequality the contributors to this volume traverse the intersectional complexities across both experiences of violent inequality and what is seen to count as violence The international scope of this book will be of interest to students and academics across many fields including sociology criminology psychology social work politics gender studies child and youth studies military and peace studies environmental studies and colonial studies as well as practitioners activists and policymakers engaged in violence prevention

The Politics of the Body Alison Phipps, 2014-04-10 Winner of the 2015 FWSA Book Prize The body is a site of impassioned fraught and complex debate in the West today In one political moment left wingers academics and feminists have defended powerful men accused of sex crimes positioned topless pictures in the tabloids as empowering and opposed them for sexualizing breasts and undermining their natural function At the same time they have been criticized by extreme right groups for ignoring honour killings and other culture based forms of violence against women How can we make sense of this varied terrain In this important and challenging new book Alison Phipps constructs a political sociology of womens bodies around key debates sexual violence gender and Islam sex work and motherhood Her analysis uncovers dubious rhetorics and paradoxical allegiances and contextualizes these within the powerful coalition of neoliberal and neoconservative frameworks She explores how feminism can be caricatured and vilified at both ends of the political spectrum arguing that Western feminisms are now faced with complex problems of positioning in a world where gender often comes second to other political priorities This book provides a welcome investigation into Western politics around womens bodies and will be particularly useful to scholars and upper level students of sociology political science gender studies and cultural studies as well as to anyone interested in how bodies become politicized

Appearance Bias and Crime Bonnie Berry, 2019-04-11 The book offers a new way of examining crime criminal victimization and crime control through the lens of appearance bias It covers timely topics such as human trafficking terrorism racial profiling and the effects of inequality on appearance and it offers policy and legislative recommendations and discussions of social movements

The Psychology of Hate Crimes as Domestic Terrorism Edward W. Dunbar, Amalio Blanco Ph.D., Desirée A. Crèvecoeur- MacPhail Ph.D., 2016-11-21 In this three volume set an international team of experts involved in the research management and mitigation of hate motivated violence examines and explains hate crimes in the United States and around the globe drawing comparisons between countries as well as between hate crimes overall and domestic terrorism The Psychology of Hate Crimes as Domestic Terrorism U S and Global Issues takes a hard look at hate crimes both domestically and internationally enabling readers to see similarities and disparities as well as to make the connections between hate crimes and domestic terrorism The entries in this three volume set discuss subjects such as the psychology and motivation in hate crimes the cultural norms that shape tolerance of outgroups or tolerance of hate and the fact that hate crimes are a pervasive form of domestic terrorism as well as myriad issues of proliferation public policy policing law and punishment and prevention The set opens with an introduction that discusses hate crime research and examines issues of identification of the bias element of hate crimes via empirical and case vignettes The subsequent chapters discuss subjects such as the socio demographic profiles of hate crime offenders hate crime legislation and policy in the United States the effects of hate crime on their victims as well as society the incidence of hate crime in specific regions such as Europe the Middle East and South America and programs and therapeutic interventions to heal victims Readers will also learn how specific educational approaches in communities schools and universities can be implemented to help prevent future escalation of hate motivated violence
