Bodyscape Art Modernity And The Ideal Figure:

Bodyscape Nicholas Mirzoeff, 2018-10-08 This book explores body images in visual culture from revolutionary France to contemporary New York It engages with artists use of different kinds of body images in painting sculpture photography and film and shows the centrality of the body in the work of artists from da Vinci to Manet Bodyscape: Art, Modernity and the Ideal Figure Nicholas Mirzoeff, 1995 Freud, Jung, and Jonah: Religion and the Birth of the Psychoanalytic Periodical Maya Balakirsky Katz, 2022-12-22 A multidisciplinary analysis of the Freud Jung wars that still rage on the discursive territory of religion The Politics of Postmodernism Linda Hutcheon, 2003-12-16 Working through the issue of representation in art forms from fiction to photography Linda Hutcheon sets out postmodernism s highly political challenge to the dominant ideologies of the western world Imagining Spaces and Places Saija Isomaa, Kirsi Saarikangas, 2014-07-18 Imagining Spaces and Places seeks to produce an interdisciplinary dialogue between art history and literature studies and other fields of cultural analysis that work with the concepts of space place and various scapes such as cityscapes bodyscapes mindscapes and memoryscapes as well as the more familiar landscapes The volume was inspired by new lines of study that underline the experiential and multidimensional aspects of spaces We explore how art literature or urban spaces forge scapes by imposing or suggesting aesthetic evaluative or ideological orderings and perceptual as well as emotive perspectives on the raw material or on previous ways of spatial worldmaking We look at the role of cultural and artistic renderings of space in relation to everyday experiences of spaces We examine how the experiences of places are mediated in various art forms and other cultural discourses or practices and how these discourses contribute to the understanding of particular places and also to understanding space in more general terms Imagining Spaces and Places is addressed to scholars and teachers working at the intersection of cultural and spatial analyses as well as to their undergraduate and postgraduate students Disability and Contemporary Performance Petra Kupperts, 2013-06-17 Disability and Contemporary Performance presents a remarkable challenge to existing assumptions about disability and artistic practice In particular it explores where cultural knowledge about disability leaves off and the lived experience of difference begins Petra Kupperts herself an award winning artist and theorist investigates the ways in which disabled performers challenge change and work with current stereotypes through their work She explores freak show fantasies and medical theatre as well as live art webwork theatre dance photography and installations to cast an entirely new light on contemporary identity politics and aesthetics This is an outstanding exploration of some of the most pressing issues in performance cultural and disability studies today written by a leading practitioner and critic Paul's Visual Piety J. M. F. Heath, 2013-05-02 This book is at the interface between Visual Studies and Biblical Studies and is the only monograph to date on St Paul s visual piety Heath argues that biblical scholarship has downplayed this worldly visuality in Christian culture and that the exegesis of Paul is both a partial cause and a symptom of this disciplinary blind spot From Fetish to Subject Carole Sweeney, 2004-10-30 Was modern primitivism complicit with the ideologies of colonialism or was it a multivalent encounter with difference Examining race and modernism through a wider and more historically contextualized study Sweeney brings together a variety of published and new scholarship to expand the discussion on the links between modernism and primitivism Tracing the path from Dada and Surrealism to Josephine Baker and Nancy Cunard's Negro An Anthology she shows the development of n graphilie from the interest in black cultural forms in the early 1920s to a more serious engagement with difference and representations in the 1930s Considering modernism race and colonialism simultaneously this work breaks from traditional boundaries of disciplines or geographic areas Why was the primitive so popular in this era Sweeney shows how high popular and mass cultural contexts constructed primitivism and how black diasporic groups in Paris challenged this construction Included is research from original archival material from black diasporic publications in Paris examining their challenges to primitivism in French literature and state sponsored exoticism The transatlantic movement of modernism and primitivism also is part of this broad comparative study The Island Race Kathleen Wilson, 2014-06-03 Rooted in a period of vigorous exploration and colonialism The Island Race Englishness empire and gender in the eighteenth century is an innovative study of the issues of nation gender and identity Wilson bases her analysis on a wide range of case studies drawn both from Britain and across the Atlantic and Pacific worlds Creating a colourful and original colonial landscape she considers topics such as sodomy theatre masculinity the symbolism of Britannia the role of women in war Wilson shows the far reaching implications that colonial power and expansion had upon the English people's sense of self and argues that the vaunted singularity of English culture was in fact constituted by the bodies practices and exchanges of peoples across the globe Theoretically rigorous and highly readable The Island Race will become a seminal text for understanding the pressing issues that it confronts Acting Bodies and Social Networks
