episode in the defense of the fatherland To some German patriots this construction of things did not seem quite plausible and they had good grounds for disbelieving it They suspected a motive which squared far better with the reality Russia entering upon a new era of military preparation would be a far greater menace to Germany in two or three years than she was then And France during that time would have completely carried out her three year army reform Is it not clear then that an intelligent self defense demanded that Germany should not wait for the attack of her enemies but should anticipate them by two years and take the offensive at once And isn't it clear too that such an offensive war deliberately provoked by Germany and Austria is in reality a preventive war of defense Not infrequently these two points of view are combined in a single argument Granted that there is some slight contradiction between them The one declares that Germany did not want the War now and that it was forced upon her by the Triple Entente while the other implies that war was disadvantageous to the Entente now and that for that very reason Germany had taken the initiative to bring on the War at this time But what if there is this contradiction It is lightly and easily glossed over and reconciled in the saving concept of a war of defense But the belligerents on the other side disputed this advantageous position of being on the defensive which Germany sought to assume and did it successfully France could
