Black Christ:

The Black Christ Douglas, Kelly Brown, 2019-04-24 In this classic work first published in 1994 Kelly Brown Douglas offers a compelling portrait of who Jesus is for the Black community Beginning with the early testimonies of the enslaved through the writings and thought of religious and literary figures voices from the Civil Rights and Black Power era including Martin Luther King Jr and Malcolm X up through the contemporary work of Black and Womanist theologians Douglas presents a living tradition that speaks powerfully to the message of our day Black Lives Matter

Ebony, 1969-03 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine

Liberating Black Theology Anthony B. Bradley, 2010-02-03 When the beliefs of Barack Obama's former pastor Rev Jeremiah Wright assumed the spotlight during the 2008 presidential campaign the influence of black liberation theology became hotly debated not just within theological circles but across cultural lines How many of today's African American congregations and how many Americans in general have been shaped by its view of blacks as perpetual victims of white oppression In this interdisciplinary biblical critique of the black experience in America Anthony Bradley introduces audiences to black liberation theology and its spiritual and social impact He starts with James Cone's proposition that the victim mind set is inherent within black consciousness Bradley then explores how such biblical misinterpretation has historically hindered black churches in addressing the diverse issues of their communities and prevented adherents from experiencing the freedoms of the gospel Yet Liberating Black Theology does more than consider the ramifications of this belief system it suggests an alternate approach to the black experience that can truly liberate all Christ followers

Introducing Black Theology of Liberation Hopkins, Dwight N., 2014-04-10 A book that reviews the principles of modern Black Theology its roots and contributions to the Christian world It also discusses what challenges Black theologians face in their minister and their religious communities

The Rise and Demise of Black Theology Alistair Kee, 2008-04-30 Black Theology emerged in the 1960s as a response to black consciousness In South Africa it is a critique of power in the UK it is a political theology of black culture The dominant form of Black Theology has been in the USA originally influenced by Black Power and the critique of white racism Since then it claims to have broadened its perspective to include oppression on the grounds of race gender and class In this book Alistair Kee contests this claim arguing that Black and Womanist Theologies present inadequate analysis of race and gender and no account at all of class or economic oppression With a few notable exceptions Black Theology in the USA repeats the mantras of the 1970s the discourse of modernity Content with American capitalism it fails to address the source of the impoverishment of black Americans at home Content with a romantic image of Africa this African American movement fails to defend contemporary Africa against predatory American global ambitions Blacks in the West Kee claims here are no longer the victims they are the voters and consumers who should be able to influence western governments the American government in particular into changing policies towards Africa in particular and the third world in general This book does not argue that Black theologians should give up but that they should move on for the sake of the black poor in America the black poor in Africa and the third world The failure of Black theologians to do so is a cause for concern beyond the circle of practitioners of Black theology

Black Theology USA and South Africa Dwight N. Hopkins, 2005-12-01 Black theology continually poses a challenge to Christian witness and faith Through a critical analysis of leading religious thinkers Dwight N Hopkins explores the fundamental differences and similarities between black theology in the United States and black theology in South Africa and asks What is the common denominator between the two Part I examines the historical political cultural and theological background of contemporary black theology in both countries Hopkins delves into the distinctive situation of each country focusing on civil rights black power and related political cultural and theological themes in the United States and on civil disobedience black consciousness the unity of politics and culture and political cultural theological themes in South Africa Through interviews with leading black religious scholars Part II explores these theologies in depth Contrasting the cultural theological trend with the political theological trend in the USA Hopkins explores the ideas of theologians Albert B Cleage James H Cone J Deotis Roberts William R Jones Gayraud S Wilmore Charles H Long Cecil W Cone and Vincent Harding In Part III Hopkins examines the same two trends cultural theological and political theological in South Africa Here the focus is on the impact of black consciousness and Soweto and the works of Manas Buthelezi Allan Boesak Simon S Maimela Frank Chikane Bonganalo C Goba Itumeleng J Mosala Takatso A Mofokeng and Desmond M Tutu Part IV brings black theology USA and black theology South Africa into dialogue Hopkins locates the common denominator between the two theologies that they both claim the Christian gospel as the gospel of liberation for black people struggling against racism and for a holistic humanity physically and spiritually politically and culturally He concludes by looking toward future areas of development and collaboration arguing that an effective black theology of liberation must integrate politics and culture insuring that the two are equal and complementary two tributaries within the same current A Black Theology of Liberation James H.

Cone, 2010 With the publication of his two early works Black Theology Black Power 1969 and A Black Theology of Liberation 1970 James Cone emerged as one of the most creative and provocative theological voices in North America These books which offered a searing indictment of white theology and society introduced a radical reappraisal of the Christian message for our time Combining the visions of Malcolm X and Martin Luther King Jr Cone radically reappraised Christianity from the perspective of the oppressed black community in North America Forty years later his work retains its original power enhanced now by reflections on the evolution of his own thinking and of black theology and on the needs of the present moment

Searching for the New Black Man Ronda C. Henry Anthony, 2013 The role of women's bodies in the productions of ideal and progressive black masculinities in African American literature Infected Christianity Alan T. Davies, 1988

Examines the influence of racism on Christian theology since the rise of scientific racism and the creation of the Aryan myth

Analyzes five images of Christ affected by racism two of which focus on antisemitism Ch 2 p 27 53 The Germanic Christ traces the influence of romantic nationalism which saw Germany as a uniquely spiritual nation and drew on German Protestant pietism in creating an antisemitic Christian mythology of the mission of the German race Surveys Christian elements in the ideas of atheistic figures such as Lagarde and Chamberlain Lutheran political theologians such as St cker paved the way for the racialization of German Protestantism in the Third Reich Ch 3 p 55 73 The Latin Christ describes similar developments in French Catholicism where racism and antisemitism were linked to the political struggle of the Church against the anticlerical republic identified with a Jewish Masonic conspiracy Thus Drumont presented the Jew as both the religious and the racial enemy of France
