Animal Theology:

Animal Theology Andrew Linzey, 1995 Animal rights is animal theology The author argues that historical theology creatively defined must reject humanocentricity He questions the assumption that if theology is to speak on this issue it must only do so on the side of the oppressors His theological query investigates not only the abstractions of theory but also the realities of hunting animal experimentation and genetic engineering He is an important pioneering Christian voice speaking for those who cannot speak for themselves Creatures of the Same God Andrew Linzey, 2009 I don't know why you're spending all your time on this They're only animals for heaven's sake That was the reaction of one of Andrew Linzey's fellow students at King's College London when he was studying theology in the 1970s Since then the now Rev Dr Andrew Linzey has been arguing that animals aren't only anything but rather that they matter to God and should do so to us In this collection of essays Linzey counters with his customary wit erudition and insight some contemporary and perhaps surprising challenges to animal rights from ecotheologians the Church and politicians He contends that far from the sometimes shallow judgments of those who think animals unworthy of theological consideration the Christian tradition has a wellspring of sources and resources available to taking animals seriously Instead of being marginal to the Christian experience Linzey concludes animals can take their rightful place alongside human beings as creatures of the same God There is a long forgotten spiritual tradition that two children both named Jesus were born in Bethlehem to two sets of parents named Joseph and Mary This tradition is supported by the different accounts of the nativity and life of Jesus Christ in the gospels of Matthew and Luke Although the Church chose to ignore this tradition something of it survived in early Christian art and symbolism The full tradition was preserved only in the literature of esoteric sects such as Gnosticism which remained outside the official teachings of institutionalized Christianity Christian Theology and the Status of Animals R.

McLaughlin, 2014-02-13 The author argues that there are conflicting traditions with regard to the question of what is the moral standing of animals according to Christianity The dominant tradition maintains that animals are primarily resources but there are alternative strands of Christian thought that challenge this view Christianity and the Rights of Animals Andrew Linzey, 2016-03-03 Christian concern about how we treat animals has increased strikingly in recent years More and more Christians are deciding that our attitudes toward animals must change Here is a book that presents for the first time a comprehensive and well argued theological case for the rights of animals and offers a challenging critique of our existing insensitivity toward animal life Everyone who cares about the rights of animals particularly clergy and ministers who are constantly being asked for answers on the issue will welcome this new and important book Developing Animal Theology Clair Linzey, 2021-10-27 This book offers an up to date examination of the nature and development of animal theology It considers what animal theology is and how it challenges and is challenged by liberation and ecological theology At the heart of the work is a critical engagement with the Brazilian ecotheologian Leonardo Boff Clair Linzey addresses ideas that originate from the papal encyclical Laudato Si and considers how Pope Francis is developing an animal friendly tradition within Catholicism Exploring new vistas in animal theology this volume makes a valuable contribution to debates on how religion should be concerned with animals and the environment This book is essential reading for anyone who wants to know the current state of debate with animal theology and its effects on the wider Christian community Animal Gospel Andrew Linzey, 1999-10-01 Our treatment of animals is a gospel issue Andrew Linzey contends because those individuals and institutions that could have become the voice of God's most vulnerable creatures have instead justified cruelty and oppression He offers an inspiring personal account of the gospel truths that have sustained his commitment to the cause of animals for more than twenty five years Animal Theologians Andrew Linzey, Clair Linzey, 2023 Many people who have thought about God have not thought about animals or about the relationship between the two But among those who have are some of the most celebrated religious thinkers including Michel de Montaigne Thomas Tryon John Wesley John Ruskin Leo Tolstoy Mohandas K Gandhi Albert Schweitzer and Paul Tillich This volume comprises 24 scholarly studies that detail challenges to the dominant anthropocentrism of most religious traditions The editors have brought together Jewish Unitarian Christian transcendentalist Muslim Hindu Dissenting deist and Quaker voices each offering a unique theological perspective that counters the neglect of the nonhuman Animal Theologians is divided into three parts starting with the pioneers who first saw a relationship between animals and divinity those who contributed to the expansion of social sensibility to animals and ending with the work of contemporary theologians The essays in this volume use contextual and historical background to describe what led animal theologians to their beliefs and then pave way for further developments in this expanding field This volume is an act of reclaiming different religious traditions for animals by recovering lost voices Compassion for Animals Andrew Linzey, 2017-05-16 Comprising a rich variety of quotations from some of the greatest thinkers in the Christian tradition this new anthology will encourage a more sensitive and compassionate regard for the animal creation Suitable for use by groups or individuals Compassion for Animals will become a valuable resource for discussion and worship whether in church in school or in the home Compassion for Animals Andrew Linzey, Director of the Oxford Centre for Animal Ethics and a Member of the Faculty of Theology Andrew Linzey, 2017-05-16 Comprising a rich variety of quotations from some of the greatest thinkers in the Christian tradition this new anthology will encourage a more sensitive and compassionate regard for the animal creation Suitable for use by groups or individuals Compassion for Animals will become a valuable resource for discussion and worship whether in church in school or in the home Andrew Linzey has been described as the greatest living writer on theology and animals by Bishop John Austin Baker He is the director of the Oxford Centre for Animal Ethics and a member of the Faculty of Theology at the University of Oxford He has written or edited more than twenty books including Animal Theology Creatures of the Same God and Why Animal Suffering Matters He is also the author of Animal Rites Liturgies of Animal Care and the coeditor of Animals and Christianity A Book of Readings both published by

Wipf and Stock      Why Animal Suffering Matters Andrew Linzey, 2009-09-17 When these considerations are fully taken into account it becomes as difficult to justify the infliction of suffering on animals as it is to do so in the case of human infants Linzey invites the reader to examine the rational case and then see how it can be applied to a detailed analysis of three practical issues hunting with dogs fur farming and commercial sealing He examines the economic legal and political considerations while retaining an ethical focus BOOK JACKET
