Animals Are Innocent The Search For Julies Killers:

The Animals are Innocent John Ward,1991 A Death Retold in Truth and Rumour Grace A. Musila,2015 Re examines this unresolved murder in Kenya and the underlying role of rumour the media and inter state relations on how the death has been reported and investigated Julie Ann Ward was a British tourist and wildlife photographer who went missing in Kenya s Maasai Mara Game Reserve in 1988 and was eventually found to have been murdered Her death and the protracted search for her killers stillat large were hotly contested in the media Many theories emerged as to how and why she died generating three trials several true crime books and much speculation and rumour At the core of Musila s study are thefollowing questions why would this young woman s death be the subject of such strong contestations of ideas and multiple truths And what does this reveal about cultural productions of truth and knowledge in Kenya and Britain particularly in the light of the responses to her disappearance of the Kenyan police the British Foreign Office and the British High Commission in Nairobi Building on existing scholarship on African history narrative gender and postcolonial studies the author reveals how the Julie Ward murder and its attendant discourses offer insights into the journeys of ideas and how these traverse the porous boundaries of the relationship between Kenya and Britain and by extension Africa and the Global North Grace A Musila is a lecturer in the English Department of Stellenbosch University South Africa The Intimate Empire Gillian Whitlock,2000-02-01 By means of contextualized readings this work argues that autobiographic writing allows an intimate access to processes of colonization and decolonization incorporation and resistance and the formation and reformation of identities which occurs in postcolonial space The book explores the interconnections between race gender autobiography and colonialism and uses a method of reading which looks for connections between very different autobiographical writings to pursue constructions of blackness and whiteness femininity and masculinity and nationality Unlike previous studies of autobiography which focus on a limited Euro American canon the book brings together contemporary and 19th century women s autobiographies and travel writing from Canada the Caribbean Kenya South Africa Australia and New Zealand With emphasis on the reader of autobiography as much as the subject it argues that colonization and resistance are deeply embedded in thinking about the self The Postcolonial Question Iain Chambers,Lidia Curti,2002-09-11 Brings together renowned and emerging critical voices to respond to the questions raised by the concept of the post colonial The contributors explore the diverse cultures which are shaping our global future African City Textualities Ranka Primorac,2013-09-13 The stereotype of Africa as a predominantly natural space ignores the existence of vibrant and cosmopolitan urban environments on the continent Far from merely embodying backwardness and lack African cities are sites of complex and diverse cultural productions which participate in modernity and its dynamics of global flows and exchanges This volume merges the concerns of urban literary and cultural studies by focusing on the flows and exchanges of texts and textual elements By analysing how texts such as popular and canonical fiction popular music self help pamphlets graffiti films journalistic writing rumours and urban legends engage with the problems of citizenship self organisation and survival the collection shows that despite all the problems of Africa its cities continue to engender forward looking creativity and hope The texts collected here belong to several different genres themselves and they are authored by both distinguished and younger scholars based in and outside of Africa The volume explores the textualities emerging from the cities of Senegal Nigeria Ghana Uganda Kenya Zambia Zimbabwe and South Africa Above all it calls for an end to disabling hierarchical categorisations of both texts and cities This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Postcolonial Writing

Masculinity and Patriarchal Villainy in the British Novel Sara Martín, 2019-11-28 Masculinity and Patriarchal Villainy in the British Novel From Hitler to Voldemort sits at the intersection of literary studies and masculinity studies arguing that the villain in many works of contemporary British fiction is a patriarchal figure that embodies an excess of patriarchal power that needs to be controlled by the hero The villains stories are enactments of empowerment fantasies and cautionary tales against abusing patriarchal power While providing readers with in depth studies of some of the most popular contemporary fiction villains Sara Martín shows how current representations of the villain are not only measured against previous literary characters but also against the real life figure of the archvillain Adolf Hitler

Five Emus to the King of Siam Helen Tiffin, 2007 Western exploitation of other peoples is inseparable from attitudes and practices relating to other species and the extra human environment generally Colonial depredations turn on such terms as human savage civilised natural progressive and on the legitimacies governing apprehension and control of space and landscape Environmental impacts were reinforced in patterns of unequal exchange by the transport of animals plants and peoples throughout the European empires instigating widespread ecosystem change under unequal power regimes a harbinger of today's globalization This book considers these imperial exchanges and charts some contemporary legacies of those inequitable imports and exports transportations and transmutations Sheep farming in Australia transforming the land as it dispossessed the native inhabitants became a symbol of new white nationhood The transportation of plants and animals into and across the Pacific even where benign or nostalgic had widespread environmental effects despite the hopes of the acclimatisation societies involved and by extension of missionary societies planting the seeds of Christianity In the Caribbean plantation slavery pushed back the jungle itself an imported word and erased the indigenous occupants one example of the righteous biblically justified cultivation of the wilderness In Australia artistic depictions of landscape often driven by romantic and gothic aesthetics encoded contradictory settler mindsets and literary representations of colonial Kenya mask the erasure of ecosystems Chapters on the early twentieth century in Canada Kenya and Queensland indicate increased awareness of the value of species preservation conservation and disease control The tension between traditional and Euroscientific attitudes towards conservation is revealed in attitudes towards control of the Ganges while the urge to resource exploitation has produced critical disequilibrium in Papua New Guinea Broader concerns centering on ecotourism and ecocriticism are treated in further

Bulungu,2024-03-28 For generations nature lovers like Joy Adamson or gallant sailors like Zhang He have risked their lives in unforgiving conditions through uncharted territory Others have bypassed the limits of human endurance to share their adventurers experiences For as long as people have travelled in the countryside interacted with locals partaken of their cuisine gotten accommodations and learned something new there have been Agritourists With increasing global awareness on natural ecosystems for sustainable livelihoods combining adventure with biodiversity conservation has never been this fascinating Understanding some basic dynamics of the culture political landscape and biodiversity of some destinations can assist with a visitor s or investor s timely decision making This is a candid sojourner s tale laced with satire where wild animal characteristics are closely matched with human behaviour across issues Safe travels The Risks of Knowledge

David William Cohen,E. S. Atieno Odhiambo,2004 The Risks of Knowledge minutely examines the multiple and unfinished investigations into the murder of Kenya s distinguished Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation Robert Ouko in February 1990 Public and international concern over Ouko s death led to renewed attention to the extent of governmental corruption the Moi era and brought down the government of President Moi at the end of 2002 Framing

Africa Nigel Eltringham,2013-06-01 The first decade of the 21st century has seen a proliferation of North American and European films that focus on African politics and society While once the continent was the setting for narratives of heroic ascendancy over self The African Queen 1951 The Snows of Kilimanjaro 1952 military odds Zulu 1964 Khartoum 1966 and nature Mogambo 1953 Hatari 1962 Born Free 1966 The Last Safari 1967 this new wave of films portrays a continent blighted by transnational corruption The Constant Gardener 2005 genocide Hotel Rwanda 2004 Shooting Dogs 2006 failed states Black Hawk Down 2001 illicit transnational commerce Blood Diamond 2006 and the unfulfilled promises of decolonization The Last King of Scotland 2006 Conversely where once Apartheid South Africa was a brutal foil for the romance of East Africa Cry Freedom 1987 A Dry White Season 1989 South Africa now serves as a redeemed contrast to the rest of the continent Red Dust 2004 Invictus 2009 Writing from the perspective of long term engagement with the contexts in which the films are set anthropologists and historians reflect on these films and assess the contemporary place Africa holds in the North American and European cinematic imagination
