Jesus, the Gospels, and Cinematic Imagination Richard Walsh, Jeffrey L. Staley, 2021-08-12 Jesus films arose with cinema itself Richard Walsh and Jeffrey L. Staley introduce students to these films with a general overview of the Jesus film tradition and with specific analyses of 22 of its most influential exemplars stretching from La vie du Christ 1906 to Mary Magdalene 2018 The introduction to each film includes discussion of plot characters visuals appeal to authority and cultural location as well as consideration of the director's and/or other filmmakers achievements and style Several film chapters end with reflections on problematic issues bedeviling the tradition such as cultural imperialism and patriarchy To assist teachers and researchers each chapter includes a listing of DVD chapters and the approximate time for both DVDs and streaming platforms at which key film moments occur The book also includes a Gospels Harmony cataloging the time at which key gospel incidents appear in these films Extensive endnotes point readers to other important work on the tradition and specific films While the authors strive to set the Jesus film tradition within cinema and its interpretation the DVD streaming listing and the Gospels Harmony facilitate the comparison of these films to gospel interpretation and the Jesus tradition

Annunciations: Sacred Music for the Twenty-First Century George Corbett, 2019-05-01 Our contemporary culture is communicating ever increasingly through the visual through film and through music This makes it ever more urgent for theologians to explore the resources of art for enriching our understanding and experience of the Judeo Christian tradition Annunciations Sacred Music for the twenty First Century edited by George Corbett answers this need evaluating the relationship between the sacred and the composition performance and appreciation of music Through the theme of annunciations this volume interrogates how when why through and to whom God communicates in the Old and New Testaments In doing so it tackles the intimate relationship between Scriptural reflection and musical practice in the past its present condition and what the future might hold Annunciations comprises three parts Part I sets out flexible theological and compositional frameworks for a constructive relationship between the sacred and music Part II presents the reflections of theologians and composers involved in collaborating on new pieces of sacred choral music alongside the six new scores and links to the recordings Part III considers the reality of programming and performing sacred works today This volume provides an indispensable resource for scholars and artists working at the interface between theology and the arts and for those involved in sacred music However it will also be of interest to anyone concerned with the ways in which the Divine communicates through word and artistry to humanity Bowker's Directory of Videocassettes for Children 1999 R R
