Poems Obiter Robert Elijah Lee Smith, 1914 The Witchfinder's Mark Paul M Clark, 2022-06-07 A devilishly dark folk horror novel set during the English Civil War Samuel Hawke is a charlatan His lucrative career as a witchfinder is built on fabricated evidence and forced confessions His guilt grows with each innocent person he condemns and his only remaining motive is the financial rewards his profession offers him In Beckborn Lancashire two girls are accused of witchcraft Samuel travels to the isolated village for an investigation which may pay enough to be his last He finds a community torn apart by fear and paranoia His hopes of a simple examination are dashed when the mystery of the two girls unravels in a deadly way Rescued by another actual witch finder Samuel is plunged into a world of the supernatural and the occult Strange people with immense power lurk on the fringes of society hiding behind the veil of superstition and belief causing chaos in war torn England Samuel must find the sister witches before he is hunted down and destroyed whilst navigating through the violence and suspicion of a country ravaged by war The Barclays of New York: who They are and who They are Not,-and Some Other Barclays R.
