Reading with a Passion Jeffrey Staley,2002-06-01 In this strikingly personal account of recent literary approaches to the Bible Jeffrey Staley shows how people s life experiences relate to what they read in the Scriptures He illustrates his argument from theories of autobiography where recent literary and feminist critiques provide him with tools for reflecting upon his childhood on a Navajo reservation and his family s five generations of contact with the Navajo people in northern Arizona and New Mexico Using Tony Hillerman s popular detective novels as a lens to refract his own childhood memories Staley investigates how his cross cultural childhood and family history have contributed to his understanding of the Fourth Gospel By combining such diverse materials as popular fiction medieval passion plays cultural anthropology rhetorical studies and autobiographical reflection Staley takes his readers on a fascinating spiritual and intellectual journey through the Gospel of John

Indian Country Martin Padget,2006 Indian Country analyzes the works of Anglo writers and artists who encountered American Indians in the course of their travels in the Southwest during the one hundred year period beginning in 1840 Martin Padget looks first at the accounts produced by government sponsored explorers most notably John Wesley Powell s writings about the Colorado Plateau He goes on to survey the writers who popularized the region in fiction and travelogue including Helen Hunt Jackson and Charles F Lummis He also introduces us to Eldridge Ayer Burbank an often overlooked artist who between 1897 and 1917 made thousands of paintings and drawings of Indians from over 140 western tribes Padget addresses two topics how the Southwest emerged as a distinctive region in the minds of late nineteenth and early twentieth century Americans and what impact these conceptions and the growing presence of Anglos had on Indians in the region Popular writers like Jackson and Lummis presented the American Indians as a primitive culture waiting to be discovered and experienced firsthand Later as Padget shows Anglo activists for Indian rights such as Mabel Dodge Luhan and Mary Austin worked for the acceptance of other views of Native Americans and their cultures

Taming the Elephant John F. Burns,2003-04-30 The final of four volumes in the California History Sesquicentennial Series this text compiles original essays which treat the consequential role of post Gold Rush California government politics and law in the building of a dynamic state with lasting impact to the present day
