Top Student, Top School? Alexandria Walton Radford,2013-05-02 Most of us think that valedictorians can write their own ticket By reaching the top of their class they have proven their merit so their next logical step should be to attend the nation s very best universities Yet in Top Student Top School Alexandria Walton Radford of American Institutes for Research reveals that many valedictorians do not enroll in prestigious institutions Employing an original five state study that surveyed nine hundred public high school valedictorians she sets out to determine when and why valedictorians end up at less selective schools showing that social class makes all the difference Radford traces valedictorians paths to college and presents damning evidence that high schools do not provide sufficient guidance on crucial factors affecting college selection such as reputation financial aid and even the application process itself Left in a bewildering environment of seemingly similar options many students depend on their parents for assistance and this allows social class to rear its head and have a profound impact on where students attend Simply put parents from less affluent backgrounds are far less informed about differences in colleges quality the college application process and financial aid options which significantly limits their child s chances of attending a competitive school even when their child has already managed to become valedictorian Top Student Top School pinpoints an overlooked yet critical juncture in the education process one that stands as a barrier to class mobility By focusing solely on valedictorians it shows that students paths diverge by social class even when they are similarly well prepared academically and this divergence is traceable to specific failures by society failures that we can and should address Watch an interview of Alexandria Walton Radford discussing her book here <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=F81c1D1BpY0>

Dust Bowl Janette-Susan Bailey,2016-10-04 This book takes the Dust Bowl story beyond Depression America to describe the dust bowl concept as a transnational phenomenon where during World War Two US and Australian national mythologies converged Dust Bowl begins with Depression America the New Deal and the US Dust Bowl where massive dust storms darkened the skies of the Great Plains and triggered a major national and international media event and generated imagery describing a failed yeoman dream Dust Bowl refugees and the coming of a new American Desert Dust Bowl traces the evolution of this imagery to Australia World War Two and New Deal inspired stories of conservation mindedness soil erosion and enemies sheep farmers and traitors creeping deserts and human extinction super human housewives and natural disaster and finally grand visions of a nation building post war scheme for Australia s iconic Snowy River that vision became the Snowy Mountains Hydro electric Scheme
