Ancient Rubian Cities:

Ancient Cities of the Indus Gregory L. Possehl, 1979 My study of the Indus Civilization has brought to light a body of excellent literature on various aspects of this ancient urban complex which has not been incorporated into the three or four standard sources frequently cited in secondary literature Most of this supplementary material is in journals and other periodicals often difficult to locate even in the best libraries Yet it constitutes an essential source for a comprehensive study of this civilization To bring some of this literature together within a single volume was a major motivation behind the preparation of this book An attempt to correct a certain imbalance in our understanding of this civilization is of equal importance Too often it has been the standard source especially Sir Mortimer Wheeler's The Indus Civilization 1968 to which scholars have turned for information and interpretation There is no doubt about the excellence of Wheeler's book but it is still largely a reflection of his perspective In a sense then Ancient Cities of the Indus was compiled in an effort to introduce a range of opinion and interpretation of issues too often considered settled The Seven Cities of the Apocalypse and Greco-Asian Culture Roland H. Worth, 2019-05-07 The companion to The Seven Cities of the Apocalypse and Roman Culture this study explores the social world in which early Christians functioned in Asia providing a comprehensive picture of life in this eastern province of the Roman Empire and focusing on how the local environment affects the interpretation of the book of Revelation The history population local culture economies and cults of each city are examined in detail Including data from hundreds of sources this volume should prove useful to students of both the Bible and Roman history as it bridges the gap between the two specialties and provides many details that enable the reader to imagine what life would really have been like in those ancient cities As such this study provides a valuable supplement to the broader question of Rome's general impact upon the region traced in the Roman Culture volume Although there are many works on the subject this is the only place where all the information is pulled together It is a useful resource for Scripture scholars nonprofessionals with an interest in Bible study professors and students of Scripture and historians specializing in the first century CE Cities of Southern Italy Augustus John Cuthbert Hare, 1911 The Trade and Cities of Armenia in Relation to Ancient World Trade Hakob Manandyan, 1965 Ancient Pakistan - an Archaeological History Mukhtar Ahmed, 2014-10-25 This is the third volume of a much larger project Ancient Pakistan An Archaeological History which deals with the prehistory of Pakistan from the Stone Age to the end of the Harappan Civilization ca 1500 BC This particular volume Harappan Civilization The Material Culture deals with the entire gambit of the urban phase of the Indus Civilization from its beginning to its decay and the ultimate end The book covers such topics as the origins settlement pattern subsistence economy architecture town planning Indus seals arts and crafts metallurgy decay and the post Harappan cultural landscape Every chapter is profusely illustrated with colored sketches and colored photographs An extensive bibliography is also provided Ancient and Modern Malta Pierre Marie Louis de Boisgelin de Kerdu, 1804 The Routledge Handbook of the Senses in the Ancient Near East Kiersten

Neumann, Allison Thomason, 2021-09-30 This Handbook is a state of the field volume containing diverse approaches to sensory experience bringing to life in an innovative remarkably vivid and visceral way the lives of past humans through contributions that cover the chronological and geographical expanse of the ancient Near East It comprises thirty two chapters written by leading international contributors that look at the ways in which humans through their senses experienced their lives and the world around them in the ancient Near East with coverage of Anatolia Egypt the Levant Mesopotamia Syria and Persia from the Neolithic through the Roman period It is organised into six parts related to sensory contexts Practice production and taskscape Dress and the body Ritualised practice and ceremonial spaces Death and burial Science medicine and aesthetics and Languages and semantic fields In addition to exploring what makes each sensory context unique this organisation facilitates cross cultural and cross chronological as well as cross sensory and multisensory comparisons and discussions of sensory experiences in the ancient world In so doing the volume also enables considerations of senses beyond the five sense model of Western philosophy sight hearing touch taste and smell including proprioception and interoception and the phenomena of synaesthesia and kinaesthesia The Routledge Handbook of the Senses in the Ancient Near East provides scholars and students within the field of ancient Near Eastern studies new perspectives on and conceptions of familiar spaces places and practices as well as material culture and texts It also allows scholars and students from adjacent fields such as Classics and Biblical Studies to engage with this material and is a must read for any scholar or student interested in or already engaged with the field of sensory studies in any period
