Williams, 2008-12-16 This volume features a collection of papers dedicated to Canons of Form Making in honor of the 500th anniversary of the birth of architect Andrea Palladio 1508 1580 Theorist as well as practitioner Palladio s architecture was based on well defined canons that he had gleaned from studying the treatises as well as the remains of architecture from antiquity Palladio himself left to posterity not only his large corpus of built works but his Quattro libri d architettura Three of the papers in this issue are specifically about Palladio and his work The other papers deal with canons of form making ancient and contemporary Artistic Practices and Cultural Transfer in Early Modern Italy Allison

Sherman, 2017-07-05 For too long the centre of the Renaissance has been considered to be Rome and the art produced in or inspired by it This collection of essays dedicated to Deborah Howard brings together an impressive group of internationally recognised scholars of art and architecture to showcase both the diversity within and the porosity between the centre and periphery in Renaissance art Without abandoning Rome but together with other centres of art production the essays both shift their focus away from conventional categories and bring together recent trends in Renaissance studies notably a focus on cultural contact material culture and historiography They explore the material mechanisms for the transmission and evolution of ideas artistic training and networks as well as the dynamics of collaboration and exchange between artists theorists and patrons The chapters each with a wealth of groundbreaking research and previously unpublished documentary evidence as well as innovative methodologies reinterpret Italian art relating to canonical sites and artists such as Michelangelo Titian Tintoretto Veronese and Sebastiano del Piombo in addition to showcasing the work of several hitherto neglected architects painters and an inimitable engineer inventor

Art of Renaissance Venice, 1400 1600 Loren Partridge, 2015-03-14 A comprehensive and richly illustrated survey of Venetian Renaissance architecture sculpture and painting created between 1400 and 1600 addressed to students travellers and the general public The works of art are analysed within Venice's cultural circumstances political economic intellectual and religious and in terms of function style iconography patronage classical sources gender art theories and artist's innovations rivalries and social status The text has been divided into two parts the fifteenth century and the sixteenth century each part preceded by an introduction that recounts the history of Venice to 1500 and to 1600 respectively including the city's founding ideology territorial expansion social classes governmental structure economy and religion The twenty six chapters have been organized to lead readers systematically through the major artistic developments within the three principal categories of art governmental ecclesiastic and domestic and have been arranged sequentially as follows civic architecture and urbanism churches church decoration ducal tombs and altarpieces refectories and refectory decoration section two only confraternities architecture and decoration palaces palace decoration devotional works portraits secular painting and halls of state villas and villa decoration The conclusion offers an overview of the major types of Venetian art and architectural patronage and their funding sources Provided by publisher

The Architecture Reader Krista Sykes, 2007 The Architecture Reader brings together for the first time texts written by architects of international esteem

St James's Palace Rufus Bird, Simon Thurley, Michael Turner, 2022-01-01 The first modern history of St James's Palace shedding light on a remarkable building at the heart of the history of the British monarchy that remains by far the least known of the royal residences In this first modern history of St James's Palace the authors shed new light on a remarkable building that despite serving as the official residence of the British monarchy from 1698 to 1837 is by far the least known of the royal residences The book explores the role of the palace as home to the heir to the throne before 1714 its impact on the development of London and the West end during the late Stuart period and how following the fire at the palace of Whitehall St James's became the principal seat of the British monarchy in 1698 The arrangement and display of the paintings and furnishings making up the Royal Collection at St James's is chronicled as the book follows the fortunes of the palace through the Victorian and Edwardian periods up to the present day Specially commissioned maps phased plans and digital reconstructions of the palace at key moments in its development accompany a rich array of historical drawings watercolors photographs and plans The book includes a foreword by His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales Published in association with Royal Collection Trust Plunder Cynthia Saltzman, 2021-05-11

One of The Christian Science Monitor's Ten Best Books of May A highly original work of history Saltzman has written a distinctive study that transcends both art and history and forces us to explore the connections between the two Roger Lowenstein The Wall Street Journal A captivating study of Napoleon's plundering of Europe's art for the Louvre told through the story of a Renaissance masterpiece seized from Venice Cynthia Saltzman's Plunder recounts the fate of Paolo Veronese's Wedding Feast at Cana a vast sublime canvas that the French under the command of the young Napoleon Bonaparte tore from a wall of the monastery of San Giorgio Maggiore on an island in Venice in 1797 Painted in 1563 during the Renaissance the picture was immediately hailed as a masterpiece Veronese had filled the scene with some 130 figures lavishing color on the canvas to build the illusion that the viewer's space opened onto a biblical banquet taking place on a terrace in sixteenth century Venice Once pulled from the wall the Venetian canvas crossed the Mediterranean rolled on a cylinder soon after artworks commandeered from Venice and Rome were triumphantly brought into Paris In 1801 the Veronese went on exhibition at the Louvre the new public art museum founded during the Revolution in the former palace of the French kings As Saltzman tells the larger story of Napoleon's looting of Italian art and its role in the creation of the Louvre she reveals the contradictions of his character his thirst for greatness to carry forward the finest aspects of civilization and his ruthlessness in getting whatever he sought After Napoleon's 1815 defeat at Waterloo the Duke of Wellington and the Allies forced the French to return many of the Louvre's plundered paintings and sculptures Nevertheless The Wedding Feast at Cana remains in Paris to this day hanging directly across from the Mona Lisa Expertly researched and deftly told Plunder chronicles one of the most spectacular art appropriation campaigns in history one that sheds light on a seminal historical figure and the complex origins of one of the great museums of the world
