[With Maps.] John BRADFORD (M.A., F.S.A.),1957 Landscape Archaeology between Art and Science Sjoerd Kluiving,Erika Guttmann-Bond,2025-10-01 Researchers in landscape archaeology use two different definitions of landscape One definition landscape as territory is used by the processual archaeologists earth scientists and most historical geographers within this volume By contrast post processual archaeologists new cultural geographers and anthropologists favour a more abstract definition of landscape based on how it is perceived by the observer Both definitions are addressed in this book with 35 papers that are presented here and that are divided into six themes 1 How did landscape change 2 Improving temporal chronological and transformational frameworks 3 Linking landscapes of lowlands with mountainous areas 4 Applying concepts of scale 5 New directions in digital prospection and modelling techniques and 6 How will landscape archaeology develop in the future This volume demonstrates a worldwide interest in landscape archaeology and the research presented here draws upon and integrates the humanities and sciences This interdisciplinary approach is rapidly gaining support in new regions where such collaborations were previously uncommon Human Landscapes in Classical Antiquity John Salmon,Graham Shipley,2013-02-01 Human Landscapes in Classical Antiquity shows how today s environmental and ecological concerns can help illuminate our study of the ancient world The contributors consider how the Greeks and Romans perceived their natural world and how their perceptions affected society The effects of human settlement and cultivation on the landscape are considered as well as the representation of landscape in Attic drama Various aspects of farming such as the use of terraces and the significance of olive growing are examined The uncultivated landscape was also important hunting was a key social ritual for Greek and hellenistic elites and wild places were not wastelands but played an essential economic role The Romans attempts to control their environment are analyzed This volume shows how Greeks and Romans worked hand in hand with their natural environment and not against it It represents an outstanding collaboration between the disciplines of history and archaeology Archaeology Kevin Greene,2002 A substantially revised and expanded edition of one of the most widely used and respected general introductions to the field of archaeology A Landscape of Conflict? Rural Fortifications in the Argolid (400-146 BC) Anna Magdalena Blomley,2022-05-26 This is the first systematic study of Late Classical and Hellenistic rural fortifications in ancient Argos and the city states of the Argolic Akte Based on one of the largest regional corpora of Greek fortified sites the volume investigates the function of rural fortifications by placing them in the context of their surrounding landscape Mediterranean Landscapes in Post Antiquity Sauro Gelichi,Lauro Olmo-Enciso,2019-06-27 The study of landscape has in recent years been a field for considerable analytical archaeological experimentation Although the Mediterranean is the home of classicism it has seen the implementation of projects of this new kind and in regions of Spain and Italy after some delay the proliferation of landscape archaeology studies
