Animals and the Law in Antiquity Saul M. Olyan, Jordan D. Rosenblum, 2021-08-06 Animal law has become a topic of growing importance internationally with animal welfare and animal rights often assuming center stage in contemporary debates about the legal status of animals While nonspecialists routinely decontextualize ancient texts to support or deny rights to animals experts in fields such as classics biblical studies Assyriology Egyptology rabbinics and late antique Christianity have only just begun to engage the topic of animals and the law in their respective areas This volume consists of original studies by scholars from a range of Mediterranean and West Asian fields on a variety of topics at the intersection of animals and the law in antiquity Contributors include Rozenn Bailleul LeSuer Beth Berkowitz Andrew McGowan F S Naiden Saul M Olyan Seth Richardson Jordan D Rosenblum Andreas Sch le Miira Tuominen and Daniel Ullucci The volume is essential reading for scholars and students of both the ancient world and contemporary law

Writing the History of the African Diaspora Toyin Falola, 2024-06-06 This Element is an analysis of the African Diaspora It will define the African Diaspora and how the concepts behind the term came to be socially and historically engineered The African diaspora is then placed into a broader historical context where the diverse global and overlapping histories of Africa s ancient ongoing diasporas will be explored In particular themes of injustice agency resistance and diversity regarding people diasporas and experiences will feature heavily Through this exploration this Element will interrogate dominating narratives regarding African diaspora related discourse seeking to address prevailing ideas that inadequately capture the true complexity and nuance of the subject It does so to construct a more comprehensive understanding of the subject matter while lining out a more holistic approach to thinking about the very nature of diaspora Finally this Element will analyze the present circumstances of the African diaspora bringing into conversation a progressively global and connected world

Microbial Endophytes Charles W. Bacon, James White, 2000-02-25 Examining intercellular infections in certain plant species that lead to a symbiotic relationship between the host and its endophytic microbes this volume demonstrates the ability of many types of endosymbionts acting as a unit with hosts to better survive compete and reproduce Practical applications of such endophytes are also discussed for e

Coevolution of Life on Hosts Dale H. Clayton, Sarah E. Bush, Kevin P. Johnson, 2015-12-24 For most the mere mention of lice forces an immediate hand to the head and recollection of childhood experiences with nits medicated shampoos and traumatic haircuts But for a certain breed of biologist lice make for fascinating scientific fodder especially enlightening in the study of coevolution In this book three leading experts on host parasite relationships demonstrate how the stunning coevolution that occurs between such species in microevolutionary or ecological time generates clear footprints in macroevolutionary or historical time By integrating these scales Coevolution of Life on Hosts offers a comprehensive understanding of the influence of coevolution on the diversity of all life Following an introduction to coevolutionary concepts the authors combine experimental and comparative host parasite approaches for testing coevolutionary hypotheses to explore the influence of ecological interactions and coadaptation on patterns of diversification and codiversification among interacting species Ectoparasites a diverse assemblage of organisms that ranges from herbivorous insects on plants to monogenean flatworms on fish and feather lice on birds are powerful models for the study of coevolution because they are easy to observe mark and count As lice on birds and mammals are permanent parasites that spend their entire lifecycles on the bodies of their hosts they are ideally suited to generating a synthetic overview of coevolution and thereby offer an exciting framework for integrating the concepts of coadaptation and codiversification
