Quiet Man Roars David Robertson, 2021-03-29 The Quiet Man Roars is the enthralling story of David Robertson one of the finest attacking full backs Scotland has produced in the last 30 years Spotted as a schoolboy Robertson signed as an apprentice with Aberdeen in the early 1980s Initially a winger a series of unfortunate events saw David selected at left back for a youth game and he never looked back He made his debut for Aberdeen at 17 and was snapped up by Rangers for just shy of GBP1m at age 22 David was an integral part of the Rangers side that won nine successive league championships and came within an ace of reaching the first Champions League final Later he played in the English Premiership for Leeds United before injury cut short his playing career prompting a move into management As a player he was the epitome of the modern day marauding full back As a coach he has already made his mark across the globe and been the subject of a BAFTA winning BBC documentary The Quiet Man Roars is the inside story of one of football's most respected characters

The Roaring Silence: John Cage: A Life David Revill, 2012-02-07 Composer John Cage is often described as the most influential musician of the last half century. He has defined and continues to define our whole concept of avant garde not just in music but increasingly as writer and visual artist. The Roaring Silence is the first full length biography of Cage. It documents his life in unrivalled detail interweaving a close account of the evolution of his work with an exploration of his aesthetic, political and philosophical ideas. David Revill maintains that Cage's extraordinary productivity and versatility are best understood in the light of his inner development. His life work and ideas have clarified, refined and reinforced one another and thereby Cage has made himself what he is. While never assuming specialist knowledge, this book discusses all of Cage's works in depth and sets them in the context of his compositional, theoretical and personal development. Also included are the most comprehensive worklist, discography and bibliography available to date as well as many previously unpublished photographs. The author draws judiciously on extensive library and archive material and on exclusive interviews and conversations with Cage and many of his friends and associates. The result is a true to life and true to form appreciation of a genuine original of interest not only to the serious researcher and the musician but to everyone interested in the cultural influences that have shaped and are shaping 20th century thought. Skyhorse Publishing along with our Arcade, Good Books, Sports Publishing and Yucca imprints is proud to publish a broad range of biographies, autobiographies and memoirs. Our list includes biographies on well known historical figures like Benjamin Franklin, Nelson Mandela and Alexander Graham Bell as well as villains from history such as Heinrich Himmler, John Wayne Gacy and O J Simpson. We have also published survivor stories of World War II, memoirs about overcoming adversity, first hand tales of adventure and much more. While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller, we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home.

Roars from the Back of the Bus Stewart McKinney, 2012-09-06 Roars from the Back of the Bus is an absorbing, amusing and at times moving collection of tales that give a rare insight into the camaraderie that exists between players at the top of their game, showing that relationships forged through experiences on a Lions tour last a lifetime. From the first Tour in 1888, it showcases characters with immense personality who fought together in wars or on rugby pitches in foreign lands and who shared a bond developed through touring as representatives of the home nations. Despite the changes to the game after the advent of professionalism, the experiences of Jamie Heaslip, Brian O'Driscoll and Joe Worsley are still similar in some ways to those of earlier intrepid tourists like Blair Mayne, Lewis Jones, Sir Carl Aarvold or David Rollo. Containing defining memories and private insights from across the tours and the decades, Roars from the Back of the Bus shows that the Lions ethos remains strong at the heart of every team.

The Lion Roars Tecumapese Morning Star, Bar Harbor in the Roaring Twenties Luann Yetter, 2015-06-08 From the end of the Great War until the onslaught of the Great Depression

Americans had a good time and nowhere was that more true than in Bar Harbor during high season. Amid peace and prosperity the wealthy flocked to Mount Desert Island, foxtrotted at the Swimming Club and tangoed at the Dreamwood Ballroom on Ireson's Hill. Rumrunners made covert pickups from isolated coves along the Mount Desert Narrows while Rockefellers, Vanderbilts and Astors coasted serenely in and out of Frenchman's Bay. Horse-drawn carriages found a haven in the quiet roads of Lafayette National Park while roadsters sped along Bay Drive. Year-round residents faced brutal winters but even then they had spirited celebrations with Winter Carnivals and Hayseed Balls as the 20s roared on in Bar Harbor.
