Biggest Modern Woman:

The Biggest Modern Woman of the World Susan Swan,1986 The Biggest Modern Woman of the World Susan Swan,1988 "Trading Magic for Fact," Fact for Magic Marc Colavincenzo,2021-10-18 This study brings together three major areas of interest history postmodern fiction and myth Whereas neither history and postmodern fiction nor history and myth are strangers to one another postmodernism and myth are odd bedfellows For many critics postmodern thought with its resistance to metanarratives stands in direct and deliberate contrast to myth with its apparent tendency to explain the world by means of neat complete narratives There is a strain of postmodern Canadian historical fiction in which myth actually forms a complement not only to postmodernism's suspicion of master narratives but also to its privileging of those marginal and at times ignored areas of history The fourteen works of Canadian fiction considered demonstrate a doubled impulse which at first glance seems contradictory On the one hand they go about demythologizing in the Barthesian sense various elements of historical discourse exposing its authority as not simply a natural given but as a construct This includes the fact that the view of history portrayed in the fiction has been either underrepresented or suppressed by official historiography On the other hand the history is then re-mythologized in that it becomes part of a pre-existing myth its mythic elements are foregrounded myth and magic are woven into the narrative or it is portrayed as extraordinary in some way The result is an empowering of these histories for the future they are made larger than life and unforgettable Speculative Fictions Herb Wyile,2002 An exploration of the proliferation of historical novels in English Canadian literature over the last thirty years Difference and Community Peter Easingwood,Konrad Gross,Lynette Hunter,1996 This volume brings together essays which suggest that the relationship between Canada and Europe is a two-way process as historically the traffic between them has been either may have something to offer the other Europe too acknowledges situations today in which difference and community are hard terms to reconcile Difference refers to gender sexuality race nationality or language Community is the collective understanding which must continually be renegotiated and reconstructed among these factors The Canadian-European connection is one in which it seems especially appropriate to explore such circumstances The topics covered include pioneer women's writing transcultural women's fiction canonical taxonomy of the contemporary novel the city poem in Confederate Canada poetry of the Great War various ethno-cultural perspectives Jewish South Asian Italian Native reappropriations Quebec cinema literature and the media and small press publishing Some of the authors treated Sandra Birdsell Nicole Brossard Jack Hodgins Henry Kreisel Robert Kroetsch Janice Kulyk Keefer Archibald Lampman Malcolm Lowry Lesley Lum Daphne Marlatt Susanna Moodie Bharati Mukherjee Alice Munro Frank Paci and Susan Swan The Biggest Modern Woman in the World, 1985-1986 - Script Richard Rose Collection,Richard Rose,1985 Neo-Victorian Freakery Helen Davies,2016-04-29 Neo Victorian Freakery explores the way in which contemporary fiction film and television has revisited the lives of nineteenth-century freak show performers It locates the neo-Victorian freak show as a crucial forum for debating the politics of disability gender sexuality and race within the genre more broadly Re-Writing Pioneer Women in Anglo-Canadian Literature Conny Steenman-Marcusse, 2021-11-15 This study investigates the connections between nineteenth century pioneer women in Canada and their putative twentieth century biographers in Anglo Canadian women s fiction by Carol Shields Small Ceremonies 1976 Daphne Marlatt Ana Historic 1988 and Susan Swan The Biggest Modern Woman of the World 1983 These three texts reveal definite problems in the formation of Canadian female identities but they also revalorise the traditionally underprivileged halves of binary structures such as female male other self body intellect subjectivity objectivity and Canada imperial centres

Margaret Atwood and the Female Bildungsroman Ellen McWilliams, 2017-03-02 Examining Margaret Atwood s work in the context of the complex history of the Bildungsroman Ellen McWilliams explores how the genre has been appropriated by women writers in the second half of the twentieth century She demonstrates that Atwood s early work her own coming of age fiction including unpublished works as well as The Edible Woman Surfacing and Lady Oracle both engages with and works against the paradigms of identity which are traditionally associated with the genre Making extensive use of unpublished manuscripts in the Atwood Collection at the University of Toronto McWilliams uncovers influences that shaped Atwood s fashioning of identity in her early novels paying particular attention to Atwood s preoccupation with survival as a key symbol of Canadian literature culture and identity She also considers the genre s afterlife on display in Cat s Eye The Robber Bride Alias Grace The Blind Assassin and Moral Disorder in which the formulations of selfhood and identity in Atwood s early fiction are revisited and developed Atwood emerges as a writer who self consciously invokes and then undercuts the traditions of the Bildungsroman a turn that may be read as a means of at once interrogating and perpetuating the form McWilliams s book furthers our understanding of subjectivity in Atwood s fiction and contributes to ongoing conversations about the role gender and cultural contexts play in reframing generic boundaries

The Victorian Woman Question in Contemporary Feminist Fiction J. King, 2005-06-01 The Victorian Woman Question in Contemporary Feminist Fiction explores the representation of Victorian womanhood in the work of some of today s most important British and North American novelists including A S Byatt Sarah Waters Margaret Atwood Angela Carter and Toni Morrison By analysing these novels in the context of the scientific religious and literary discourses that shaped Victorian ideas about gender it contributes to an important inter disciplinary debate For while showing the power of these discourses to shape women s roles the novels also suggest how individual women might challenge that power through their own lives
