Big Money Atkinson:

Atkinson's Evening Post, and Philadelphia Saturday News, 1929 Atkinson's Evening Post, and Philadelphia Saturday News, 1943 SCC Library has 1974 89 plus scattered issues Back from the Brink Paul McGrath, 2010-12-15 The extraordinary and heartbreaking memoir from one of football's greatest players Paul McGrath is Ireland's best loved sportsman and also its least understood. An iconic football presence during a professional career stretching over 14 years he played for his country in the European Championship finals of 1988 and the World Cup finals of 1990 and 1994. But behind the implied glamour of life in the employ of great English clubs like Manchester United and Aston Villa McGrath wrestled with a range of destructive emotions that made his success in the game little short of miraculous. That story has until now never been told. It is a story that runs from a hard hidden childhood spent in Dublin's orphanages all the way to the pain of two marriage break ups and the struggle to cope with life after football. Quite apart from his all too public struggle with alcoholism the story runs through the surreal highs and calamitous lows of a life lived habitually on the edge of chaos. It is not just a football story. It is an extraordinary human story that is certain to surprise with its candour. Here for the first time read about the father he never met the mother whose love never died the routine loneliness and ritual bullying endured by a black kid growing up behind closed doors in 1960s Dublin the emotional breakdown suffered on leaving that institution the recovery that remarkably brought him all the way to Old Trafford the rollercoaster ride that followed. Here the guilt fear self loathing are all laid bare in a story fired with hope and determination for the future. It may well be the most candid sports book ever written Socialistic, Communistic, Mutualistic, and Financial Fragments William Batchelder Greene, 1875

Business Without Boundary James Gray, 1954 Business Without Boundary was first published in 1954. Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions. The firm of General Mills is probably best known to millions of people as the maker of Gold Medal Flour and as the progenitor of that first lady of the kitchen and the airwaves Betty Crocker. But although its greatest fame is as a flour miller the company engages in a host of other activities that attest to the foresight and creative thinking of its executives. In fact the sky seems to be the only limit as the company extends its sights upward in Operation Skyhook a United States navy research project for which General Mills makes and launches into the stratosphere giant plastic balloons. James Gray relates not only the history of General Mills since its founding in 1928 but also the background of the major companies that merged to form the larger corporation the Washburn Crosby Company of Minneapolis the Sperry Company of San Francisco the Kell group of Texas and Oklahoma mills and the Larrowe Milling Company of Detroit. Anyone interested in advertising and promotion will find fascinating the accounts of the early successes in radio advertising including the first use of singing commercials and the phenomenal rise of Betty Crocker voted the second best known woman in America. The scientific and technical research that is a cornerstone of the modern corporation is described in detail as is the development of the products control method a General Mills innovation now widely adopted in industry For those curious to understand how business expands for those interested in a close up of industrial leaders for anyone who wants to sharpen his view of America at work this is an important book Rio Pecos Compound William F.
