Born For Liberty:

Born for Liberty Sara Evans, 1997-08-22 A history of American women from the Indian woman of the 16th century to the dual role career woman and mother of the 1980s Born for Liberty: A History of Women in America Sara Margaret

Evans, 1991 Marriage Made in Eden Alice P. Mathews, M. Gay Hubbard, 2010-08-01 Why Does Marriage Today Seem To Be Such a Far Cry From Paradise Let's face it Our culture's version of marriage is not as God designed it to be With a lot more emphasis on individualism and consumerism today's married couples tend to lose sight of God's original purpose for marriage a call for his people to take Jesus message to the heart of everyday life Marriage Made in Eden provides a radical alternative to today's view of marriage giving a glimpse into the historical and cultural aspects that have shaped marriage in America With this insightful analysis you'll learn how marriage has come to be in the state we now find it and about God's model and purpose for a sacred Christian union A Century of Votes for Women Christina Wolbrecht, J. Kevin Corder, 2020-01-30 How have American women voted in the first 100 years since the ratification of the Nineteenth Amendment How have popular understandings of women as voters both persisted and changed over time In A Century of Votes for Women Christina Wolbrecht and J Kevin Corder offer an unprecedented account of women voters in American politics over the last ten decades Bringing together new and existing data the book provides unique insight into women's and men's voting behavior and traces how women's turnout and vote choice evolved across a century of enormous transformation overall and for women in particular Wolbrecht and Corder show that there is no such thing as the woman voter instead they reveal considerable variation in how different groups of women voted in response to changing political social and economic realities The book also demonstrates how assumptions about women as voters influenced politicians the press and scholars

Public Relations and Religion in American History Margot Opdycke Lamme, 2014-02-18 Winner of The American Journalism Historians Association Book of the Year Award 2015 This study of American public relations history traces evangelicalism to corporate public relations via reform and the church based temperance movement It encompasses a leading evangelical of the Second Great Awakening Rev Charles Grandison Finney and some of his predecessors early reformers at Oberlin College where Finney spent the second half of his life leaders of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the Anti Saloon League of America and twentieth century public relations pioneer Ivy Ledbetter Lee whose work reflecting religious and business evangelism has not yet been examined Observations about American public relations history icon P T Barnum whose life and work touched on many of the themes presented here also are included as thematic bookends As such this study cuts a narrow channel through a wide swath of literature and a broad sweep of historical time from the mid eighteenth century to the first decades of the twentieth century to examine the deeper and deliberate strategies for effecting change for persuading a community of adherents or opponents or even a single soul to embrace that which an advocate intentionally presented in a particular way for a specific outcome prescriptions as it turned out not only for religious conversion but also for public relations initiatives Arizona's War Town John S. Westerlund, 2004-01-01 Few American towns went untouched by World War II even those in remote corners of the country During that era the federal government forever changed the lives of many northern Arizona citizens with the construction of the U S Army ordnance depot at Bellemont ten miles west of Flagstaff John Westerlund now tells how this linchpin in the war effort marked a turning point in Flagstaff's history One of only sixteen munitions depots built between 1941 and 1943 the Navajo Ordnance Depot contributed significantly to the city's rapid growth during the war years as it brought considerable social cultural and economic change to the region A clearing in the ponderosa pine forest called Volunteer Prairie met the military's criteria for a munitions depot open terrain a cool climate plentiful water and proximity to a railroad and it was also sufficiently inland to be safe from the threat of coastal invasion Constructing a depot of 800 ammunition bunkers each the size of a 2 000 square foot home called for a force of 8 000 laborers and Flagstaff became a boom town overnight as construction workers and their families poured in from nearby Indian reservations and as far away as the Midwest and South More than 2 000 were retained as permanent employees a larger workforce than Flagstaff's total pre war employment roster As Westerlund's portrait of wartime Flagstaff shows prosperity brought unanticipated consequences racism simmered beneath the surface of the town as ethnic groups were thrown together for the first time merchants called a city wide strike to protest emerging union activity juvenile delinquency rose dramatically Flagstaff women entered the workforce in unprecedented numbers altering local mores along with their own plans for the future meanwhile hundreds of sailors and marines arrived at Arizona State Teachers College to participate in the Navy's V 12 program Whether recounting the difficulty of 3 500 Navajo and Hopi employees adjusting to life off the reservation or the complaints of townspeople that Austrian POWs transferred to the depot to ease the labor shortage were treated too well Westerlund shows that the construction and maintenance of the facility was far more than a military matter Navajo Ordnance Depot remained operational to support wars in Korea Vietnam and the Persian Gulf and today Camp Navajo provides storage for thousands of deactivated ICBM motors But in recounting its early days Westerlund has skillfully blended social and military history to vividly portray not only a city's transitional years but also the impact of military expansion on economic and community development in the American West Making Men Moral Nancy K. Bristow, 1997-10 Nancy Bristow successfully combines military history with anecdotes of cultural reform efforts to educate and mold with movies dances exercises books and sing alongs sexually active soldiers into model citizens LIBRARY JOURNAL 39 photos Yours in Sisterhood Amy Erdman Farrell, 2000-11-09 In the winter of 1972 the first issue of Ms magazine hit the newsstands For some activists in the women's movement the birth of this new publication heralded feminism's coming of age for others it signaled the capitulation of the women's movement to crass commercialism But whatever its critical reception Ms quickly gained national success selling out its first issue in only eight days and becoming a popular icon of the women's movement almost immediately Amy Erdman Farrell traces the history of Ms from its pathbreaking origins in 1972 to its final commercial issue in 1989 Drawing on interviews with former editors archival materials and the text of Ms itself she examines the magazine s efforts to forge an oppositional politics within the context of commercial culture While its status as a feminist and mass media magazine gave Ms the power to move in circles unavailable to smaller more radical feminist periodicals it also created competing and conflicting pressures says Farrell She examines the complicated decisions made by the Ms staff as they negotiated the multiple frequently incompatible demands of advertisers readers and the various and changing constituencies of the feminist movement An engrossing and objective account Yours in Sisterhood illuminates the significant yet difficult connections between commercial culture and social movements It reveals a complex often contradictory magazine that was a major force in the contemporary feminist movement Movies as History Marie L. Aquila,2014-04-22 Popular movies can enhance the study of history A dominant form of entertainment throughout the 20th century they can serve as nontraditional primary sources and offer remarkable opportunities to observe attitudes about social concerns gender or racial issues politics and historical events that were current when the movies were made This book is a topical guide for educators providing detailed analysis of 35 movies followed by discussion questions that will help students interpret how each movie s content and themes reflect the times when it was made The book covers four main topics the Great Depression World War II the early years of the Cold War and the changing expectations and images of women in movies from 1930 to 1970 An historical overview chronicles how each topic was treated in movies from that time period The movies should have wide appeal in grades 7 through 12 and can help students learn to think more critically about the images and messages that appear in popular media today American Government in Black and White Paula Denice McClain,Steven C.
