Bornholm Night Ferry:

Bornholm Night-ferry Aidan Higgins, 2006 During the five years of their adulterous affair Finn Fitzgerald and Elin Marstrander spend only 47 days and nights together At each of their meetings in Spain or London or on the tiny island of Bornholm in the Baltic Sea which serves as their last refuge they try to conjure a reality that will correspond to that of the passionate letters they exchange while apart Elin a Danish poet and Fitz an Irish novelist send each other beautiful loving words as well as evocative jabs of cruelty often in the same letter In the whirling world of their writing they attempt to enjoy their love in the calm they can't find in their daily lives But as reality their lovers and their children their failures and regrets creeps in their relationship inevitably crumbles The dream ends Bornholm, night ferry Aidan Higgins, 1979 Bornholm

Night-ferry Aidan Higgins, 1983 Chopin's funeral bisecting the 19th century stands as a turning point with both his life and music playing out at the crossroads His decline and death following a series of catastrophes and on the brink of a new style were final chapters in an often tragic life but also reflected larger historical forces the end of a world that fostered his particular genius the wounds of exile and most fatally the loss of love An intimate close up of the composer's last years it is also the story of the artist as hero At the close of his life with no home or money his physical powers failing Chopin grappled with nothing less than a new musical form

Realm of the Dead □□□□, 2006 In this collection of short stories the lands of both the living and the dead are equally dark and mysterious worlds where logic and reality are subject to constant change and where ideas about identity and self are continually questioned

Our Circus Presents-- Lucian Dan Teodorovici, 2009 Every day the Birdman performs the same ritual he climbs out onto his window ledge to see if he can manage to kill himself and never does The Birdman is a member of a loose knit group of failed suicides each pursuing absurd ways to end their lives one saving up lost dog reward money to buy enough good whiskey to drink himself to death another hoping to contract a fatal disease by sleeping with as many women as possible Just when it seems these routines will continue indefinitely the Birdman meets a professional suicide the dangerous and inscrutable man with orange suspenders who makes a living by trying to hang himself whenever he sees a potential rescuer approaching This chance encounter which leads at last to a real death will force the Birdman to confront the roots of his desire to escape from life and to see firsthand that dying is more than just a rehearsal Book Jacket

The Confidence-man Herman Melville, 2007 A scathing razor sharp satire set on a New Orleans bound riverboat The Confidence Man exposes the fraudulent optimism of so many American idols and idealists Ralph Waldo Emerson Henry David Thoreau and P T Barnum in particular and draws a dark vision of a country being swallowed by its illusions of progress Why is Dalkey Archive doing yet another edition of The Confidence Man And why is it doing Melville at all First this edition originally published by Bobbs Merrill over forty years ago contains remarkable annotations by H Bruce Franklin intended for both the general reader and the scholar It's an edition we have long admired More importantly we believe that The Confidence Man is America's first postmodern novel game like darkly comic and completely inventive

Beauty Looks Down on Me Eun Heekyung, 2017-05-26 Beauty Looks Down On Me is a collection of by turns sad and funny stories about the thwarted expectations of the young as they grow older Heekyung's characters are misfits who by virtue of their bodies or their lack of social status are left to dream of momentous changes that will never come Unsatisfied with work with family with friends they lose themselves in diets books and blogs Heekyung's collection humorously but humanely depicts the loneliness and monotony found in many modern lives

Modern Irish Autobiography L. Harte, 2007-04-12 Modern Irish Autobiography provides the first comprehensive critical analysis of the Irish autobiographical tradition from the early nineteenth century to the present day This pioneering collection offers readers a stimulating and provocative introduction to the principal themes modes and narrative strategies of Irish autobiographers

The Irish Sea Carlos Maleno, 2017-05-26 At a New Year's Eve party a dead woman turns up alive again after passing through a mysterious post mortem way station located on another planet and much to the disbelief of her old flame who interprets the night's events with the help of his reading of Kafka A priest is sent by the Vatican to investigate a strange development in the American cattle market a breed of cows identical in all physical respects to human women A man leaves his wife and flees to the north of Spain where he meets a sickly woman in an empty caf introduces himself as Jorge Walser and makes plans with her to disappear Aboard a transatlantic cruise a door-to-door vacuum salesman bumps into a woman who appears to be Nastassja Kinski and they swap tall tales as the ship floats them asymptotically toward world's end Christ turns out to be a girl who fronts a punk band The words of such writers as Beckett Walser Chekhov Gombrowicz Bolaño Kafka Blanchot and Borges are characters in themselves The Irish Sea is a novel masquerading as a book of short stories A meditation on the paradox of nostalgia which always seems to pine for what never was A fevered search for order through writing of truth through literature of the nodal point where life and literature intersect A strange personal gallery curated by a razor sharp reader and his other unknown self
