

Finding The Main Idea

Directions: Read the passage and in one sentence, write the main idea.

Passage 1

The winds battered the windows as I shivered quietly in the corner of my bed. It was dark outside, and the lonely candle on my bed side table flickered with the howling of the wind. The coconut trees which stood outside my door since I was a child were no more; they had sailed away many hours before. Mrs. Jones, my neighbor, would be very relieved to know that she had made the right decision about going to a shelter. The roof to her house was no more and her few possessions had been reduced to rubble. As the rains continued to fall heavily, I held on tightly to my favorite stuffed animal and hoped it would all end with the rising of the sun.
