Jacques Maritain,1939 A Preface to Metaphysics Jacques Maritain,2010 The Mind That Is Catholic James V. Schall,2011-01-30 In this wide ranging collection of philosophical essays the acclaimed Catholic intellectual presents his vision of Catholic thought applied in the world In The Mind That Is Catholic political philosopher and Catholic intellectual James V Schall presents a retrospective collection of his academic and literary essays written in the past fifty years In these essays exploring topics from war to friendship philosophy politics and everyday living Schall exemplifies the Catholic mind at its best According to Schall the Catholic mind seeks to recognize a consistent and coherent relation between the solid things of reason and the definite facts of revelation It seeks to understand how they belong together each profiting from the other It respects what can be known by faith alone but does not exclude the intelligibility of what is revealed In these contemplative and insightful essays Schall shares a lifetime of study in political philosophy a wide ranging discipline and perhaps the most vital context in which reason and revelation meet Father James V Schall is one of the few renaissance men still among us His knowledge of various areas of reality and human endeavor is encyclopedic Kenneth Baker S J editor Homiletic Pastoral Review Twentieth-Century Philosophy of Religion Graham Oppy,N. N. Trakakis,2014-09-11 The twentieth century saw religion challenged by the rise of science and secularism a confrontation which resulted in an astonishingly diverse range of philosophical views about religion and religious belief Many of the major philosophers of the twentieth century James Bergson Russell Wittgenstein Ayer Heidegger and Derrida significantly engaged with religious thought Idiosyncratic thinkers such as Whitehead Levinas and Weil further contributed to the extraordinary diversity of philosophical investigation of religion across the century In their turn leading theologians and religious philosophers notably Buber Tillich and Barth directly engaged with the philosophy of religion Later philosophy of religion became a distinct field of study led by the work of Hick Alston Plantinga and Swinburne Twentieth Century Philosophy of Religion provides an accessible overview of the major strands in the rich tapestry of twentieth century thought about religion and will be an indispensable resource for any interested in contemporary philosophy of religion The History of Western Philosophy of Religion Graham Oppy, N. N. Trakakis, 2016-09-17 The History of Western Philosophy of Religion brings together an international team of over 100 leading scholars to provide authoritative exposition of how history's most important philosophical thinkers from antiquity to the present day have sought to analyse the concepts and tenets central to Western religious belief especially Christianity Divided chronologically into five volumes The History of Western Philosophy of Religion is designed to be accessible to a wide range of readers from the scholar looking for original insight and the latest research findings to the student wishing for a masterly encapsulation of a particular philosopher's views Together these volumes provide an indispensable resource for anyone conducting research or teaching in the philosophy of religion and related fields such as theology religious studies the history of philosophy and the history of ideas French Existentialism Frederick Temple Kingston, 1961-12-15 In this study the author makes a comparison between the two main types of existentialism the Christian and the non Christian The comparison is made on four levels first the common situation second the possibility and means of communication third the chosen methods of philosophy and fourth the attitude and interpretations in relation to similar subjects Although the French existentialists have been greatly influenced by Kierkegaard and by contemporary existentialist thought in Germany Switzerland Italy Spain and the United States the study is limited to the existentialism of contemporary French writers France in the last fifty years has experienced some of the most crucial events of her history and this common setting for both Christian and non Christian man turns to Christianity and another militant atheism It is particularly in France that the split is most clearly made between these two varieties of existentialist thought Dr Kingston handles the issues in a fair and honest way neither concealing his own position nor dealing unfairly with those of whom he is most critical The intelligent English reader lay or academic will find this an excellent introduction to a whole area of modern French life and thought with which he is unlikely to be well acquainted Jacques Maritain in the 21st Century Walter Schultz, 2022-03-01 From his rebellious youth through his yearning for sainthood as one of the 20th century's leading Christian philosophers the quest for liberation defines Jacques Maritain 1882 1973 Throughout the 20th century Maritain rejected the egocentric isolation rampant throughout liberal society as well as totalitarian collectivism Maritain promoted the human person open by way of nature and grace to integral liberation and redemption through authentic community This book argues that Maritain contributes to our understanding in the 21st century of the myriad yet coalescing movements seeking to address global economic sustainability the fostering of human rights and participatory democracy Through a series of papers published over the course of more than 20 years from the tail end of the 20th century through the first decades of the 21st century Maritain's social and political thought engages contemporary thinkers and movements with penetrating insight
