Soviet-East European Relations as a Problem for the West Richard D. Studies in the Transmission of Wyclif's Writings Anne Hudson,2023-05-31 Wyclif s ideas caused a major upheaval both in the country of his birth and in the Bohemian area of central Europe that upheaval affected theological ecclesiastical and political developments from the late 14th to the early 16th centuries Some of those ideas were transmitted orally through Wyclif s university teaching in Oxford and in his preaching in London and Lutterworth but the main medium through which his message was disseminated was the written word using the universal western language of Latin The papers in this collection look at aspects of that dissemination from the organization and revision of Wyclif s works to form a summa of his ideas the techniques devised to identify and make accessible his multifarious writings the attempts of the orthodox clerical establishment to destroy them through to the fortunes of his texts in the Reformation period manuscripts written in England and those copied abroad mostly in Bohemia are considered Although most of the papers have been published previously a new edition of the important Hussite catalogue of Wyclif s writings is provided and three lengthy sections contribute new material and additions and corrections to previous listings of Wyclif manuscripts

Watching the Jackals Daniela Richterova,2025 Watching the Jackals is about the untold history of Czechoslovakia s complex relationship with Middle Eastern terrorists and revolutionaries during the closing decades of the Cold War Based on recently declassified intelligence files Daniela Richterova tells the story of Prague s engagement with various factions of the Palestine Liberation Organization as well as some of the era s most infamous terrorists including Carlos the Jackal Munich Olympics massacre commander Abu Daoud and the Abu Nidal Organization In the 1970s and 1980s Prague became a favorite destination for these controversial individuals who appeared there to seek refuge enjoy recreation or hold secret meetings aimed at securing training arms and other forms of support Richterova explains why terrorists and revolutionaries had long gravitated towards Prague why Prague was interested in them but also why in some cases Czechoslovakia s powerful security and intelligence apparatus the StB St tn bezpe nost was wary or even fearful of these unpredictable groups Through research in the unusually thorough and transparent records from the former Czechoslovakia Richterova offers readers a fascinating history of how states use their spies to pursue covert policies with violent non state actors The book also introduces new evidence and nuance into old debates about whether or not the Communist Bloc supported terrorism Contextualism in Philosophy

Gerhard Preyer,Georg Peter,2005-08-11 In epistemology and in philosophy of language there is fierce debate about the role of context in knowledge understanding and meaning Many contemporary epistemologists take seriously the thesis that epistemic vocabulary is context sensitive This thesis is of course a semantic claim so it has brought epistemologists into contact with work on context in semantics by philosophers of language This volume brings together the debates in a set of twelve specially written essays representing the latest work by leading figures in the two fields All future work on contextualism will start here

A Companion to the Philosophy of History and Historiography Aviezer Tucker,2011-06-28 A COMPANION TO THE PHILOSOPHY OF HISTORY AND HISTORIOGRAPHY The philosophy of historiography examines our representations and knowledge of the past the relation between evidence inference explanation and narrative Do we possess knowledge of the past Do we just have probable beliefs about the past or is historiography a piece of convincing fiction The philosophy of history is the direct philosophical examination of history whether it is necessary or contingent whether it has a direction or whether it is coincidental and if it has a direction what it is and how and why it is unfolding The fifty entries in this Companion cover the main issues in the philosophies of historiography and history including natural history and the practices of historians Written by an international and multi disciplinary group of experts these clearly written entries present a cutting edge updated picture of current research in the philosophies of historiography and history This Companion will be of interest to philosophers historians natural historians and social scientists Issues in
