

Questions of Value

A question about the worth, rightness, morality of an idea or action.

Examples:

1. To persuade my audience that capital punishment is legally and morally wrong.
2. To persuade my audience that Pepsi is better than Coke.
3. To persuade my audience that arranged marriage leads to a lasting relationship.

A Question Of Values

Lewis Hunter

A Question Of Values:

A Question of Values Peter Lawler, 1995 Places the work of Johan Galtung in the context of past and current debates in international relations political theory and more generally in the social sciences This comprehensive and critical account scrutinises Galtung's conceptual icons such as positive peace and structural violence A Question of Values ,2021-11-22 This volume contains ten chapters each of which takes up a different question in contemporary moral or political philosophy The volume has three parts meta ethics issues in freedom and autonomy and contemporary political philosophy In the meta ethical section the chapters address issues concerning acts and their value the plausibility of aggregation and counting with respect to the value of human lives and the role of moral character in causing and explaining moral behavior In the second section the chapters take up questions about the connection between moral imagination and a plausible account of integrity the connection between autonomy and rights to property and the difficulties facing internalist accounts of autonomy In the final section the chapters address issues concerning feminist critiques of Rawlsian liberalism the limits of liberalism and communitarianism the importance of understanding Rawls's social contract as a contract for institutions and the morality of nationalist movements These chapters reflect a cross section of the issues concerning value that are of contemporary scholarly interest in Canada and the United States The Interpretation of Pueblo Culture: A Question of Values John William Bennett, 1946 A Question of Values Hunter Lewis, 1991 What personal values are How we decide about them What the alternatives are Seventy eight value systems featured Used in classrooms at Harvard and around the world Praised by educators from Harvard Yale Stanford the Institute for Advanced Study the University of Virginia Berea College and elsewhere A question of values: six ways we make the personal choices that shape our lives Lewis Hunter, 1990 Index and bibliography included A Question of Values Paul L.
