Mitchell, 2011-03-03 Based around the three key themes historiography politics and economy art and architecture this collection examines the latest research on Safavid Iran The book dedicated to the renowned Safavid historian Roger Savory will supplement and reinterpret the existing literature on the subject The World's 100 Weirdest Museums Geoff Tibballs, 2016-10-20 When we think of the world's great museums we tend to think of the Louvre the Guggenheim or the Victoria and Albert We do not immediately think of the Dog Collar Museum the Kansas Barbed Wire Museum the Museum of Broken Relationships or Barney Smith's Toilet Seat Art Museum Yet scattered across the globe are museums dedicated to every conceivable subject from bananas to Bigfoot lawnmowers to leprechauns teapots to tapeworms mustard to moist towelettes and pencils to penises Many are serious collections housed in grand buildings others are located in tiny premises and are open to visitors by appointment only often the result of one person's crazy lifetime obsession This book lists the world's 100 weirdest museums in order of quirkiness encompassing such delights as The Museum of Witchcraft in Cornwall a museum in Kentucky that houses 800 ventriloquists dolls the Museum of Bad Art in Massachusetts the Paris Sewer Museum the French Fry Museum in Bruges the Museum of Contraception and Abortion in Vienna the Salt and Pepper Shaker Museum in Tennessee Japan's Momofuku Ando Instant Ramen Museum quite possibly the world's only museum devoted to instant noodles and the Kunstkamera in St Petersburg home to Peter the Great's collection of oddities including deformed fetuses and the decapitated head of a love rival preserved in vinegar After all what holiday is complete until you have seen a 300 year old decapitated human head in a jar Each entry will include address contact and admission details so the next time you are in Berlin there is no excuse for missing out on a visit to the Currywurst Museum the world's leading museum dedicated to sausages in hot ketchup Four Century of Glory Jamila Hasanzadeh, Agasalim Afandiyev, 2011 The Caucasian Knot

Levon Chorbajian, Patrick Donabédian, Claude Mutaflan, 1994 As the Soviet Union entered its death throes the self determination of the nations within its republics became an issue over which people were prepared to die When Azerbaijan declared its independence the Armenian enclave of Nagorno Karabagh followed suit Before long pogrom and war were the order of the day resulting in thousands of Armenian and Azeri casualties This book examines the history of Mountainous Karabagh the ancient Artsakh of the Armenians and assesses the mass of archaeological material and documentary evidence supporting the conflicting Azeri and Armenian claims The authors follow the populations of the area from antiquity through periods of Mongol Turkmen and Persian occupation on to Turkey's and Russia's entry onto the scene the period of Bolshevik rule perestroika and finally the war with Azerbaijan This book highlights the Armenian culture of the enclave traces Karabagh's demographic evolution and situates the current hostilities in terms of the interests of neighbouring Russia Iran and Turkey The picture that emerges of a clash of nationalistic passions and of Russian economic military and diplomatic calculation is a signpost for future conflicts on both sides of the Caucasus The assertion of Armenian and Azeri identity and culture remain at the heart of this tragedy This book helps us to understand why the Armenians feel so strongly that Artsakh is theirs and is worth dying for Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair, C.
