SPELLING AND VOCABULARY

Homophones, synonyms, antonyms, prefixes, suffixes—there's a lot to learn as you improve your spelling and expand your vocabulary. Luckily, the more you know how words work, the easier it will be. Let's go!

PARENTS

A robust vocabulary is key to reading comprehension. Most vocabulary is learned indirectly through hearing words spoken and listening to or reading books. You can help expand your learner's vocabulary as they encounter new words by defining the words, giving examples in the framework of their daily life, and encouraging them to develop their own examples.
