Reasoning with God Khaled Abou El Fadl, 2014-10-23 In light of recent concern over Shari'ah such as proposed laws to prohibit it in the United States and conflict over the role it should play in the new Egyptian constitution many people are confused about the meaning of Shari'ah in Islam and its role in the world today In Reasoning with God renowned Islamic scholar Khaled Abou El Fadl explains not only what Shari'ah really means but also the way it can revitalize and reengage contemporary Islam After a prologue that provides an essential overview of Shari'ah Abou El Fadl explores the moral trajectory of Islam in today's world Weaving powerful personal stories with broader global examples he shows the ways that some interpretations of Islam today have undermined its potential in peace and love Rather than simply outlining challenges however the author provides constructive suggestions about how Muslims can reengage the ethical tradition of their faith through Shari'ah. Beauty and the Beast Gail Kuppen, 2017-04-25 In an almost failing marriage, Gail Kuppen desperately cried out to the Lord for him to show her his view on the role of a wife. The revelations she received from the Lord astounded her as she realized that for almost twenty years of marriage, she had had a worldly view that was based on selfishness rather than God's view, which was based on laying down her life. She set her heart to apply her newfound knowledge, which resulted in the beauty being unleashed in both her husband and herself, thus saving their marriage. Her desire is to see every marriage succeed. She believes that if God can do it for her at a time when she was almost giving up, he can do it for you too.

Beauty and the End of Art Sonia Sedivy, 2016-04-21 Beauty and the End of Art shows how a resurgence of interest in beauty and a sense of ending in Western art are challenging us to rethink art, beauty, and their relationship. By arguing that Wittgenstein's later work and contemporary theory of perception offer just what we need for a unified approach to art and beauty, Sonia Sedivy provides new answers to these contemporary challenges. These new accounts also provide support for the Wittgensteinian realism and theory of perception that make them possible. Wittgenstein's subtle form of realism explains artworks in terms of norm-governed practices that have their own varied constitutive norms and values. Wittgensteinian realism also suggests that diverse beauties become available and compelling.

in different cultural eras and bring a shared higher order value into view With this framework in place Sedivy argues that perception is a form of engagement with the world that draws on our conceptual capacities This approach explains how perceptual experience and the perceptible presence of the world are of value helping to account for the diversity of beauties that are available in different historical contexts and why the many faces of beauty allow us to experience the value of the world s perceptible presence Carefully examining contemporary debates about art aesthetics and perception Beauty and the End of Art presents an original approach Insights from such diverse thinkers as Immanuel Kant Hans Georg Gadamer and Arthur Danto Alexander Nehamas Elaine Scarry and Dave Hickey are woven together to reveal how they make good sense if we bring contemporary theory of perception and Wittgensteinian realism into the conversation Romancing Your Husband Debra White Smith,2013-02-01 Challenging misconceptions about the biblical message on marriage a spirited guide for women encourages wives to revolutionize their unions from praying with their partners to arranging romantic times despite busy schedules Original
