Christian Responses to Terrorism Gordon L. Heath, David Kirwa Tarus, 2017-11-01 How should Christians respond to terrorism and terrorists in their midst Terrorism is a global problem and no society on earth faces it alone The mainly Christian society of Kenya has suffered more than most as it attempts to counter the threat of al Shabaab Some pastors have asked for permission to carry guns Many Christians support government military action while others recommend pacifist stances and strive for dialogue and reconciliation with the Muslim community In this book ten Kenyan Christian thinkers and practitioners share their experiences and insights A response section from seven others including a Kenyan Muslim scholar enrich the discussion

A Time for Hope David Epstein, 2011-10-01 It looked like a scene from Beirut or Kabul a long line of refugees dusty frightened in shock semi lifeless But it was not the Middle East it was 57th Street in New York City as the refugees escaped north a few miles from Ground Zero Some were members of our own congregation who had escaped the Twin Towers from as high up as the 87th floor And we along with hundreds of churches had the privilege of offering spiritual emotional and physical help the love of God 9 11 changed the world We now live with the daily threat of more terrorist attacks Is there any hope in the midst of a seemingly endless war against terrorism A Time for Hope will shock anger and challenge you It will also inform and strengthen you Its theme is that God hates terrorism but loves terrorists and offers them forgiveness just like the Apostle Paul God s power and grace can transform a man full of hate and murder into a man filled with love and compassion Dave Epstein is the senior pastor of the historic Calvary Baptist Church in New York City and a former professor of Biblical Studies and History He and his congregation experienced 9 11 firsthand and saw the healing power of God in action in the midst of the devastation They learned that God is a God of love hope justice and peace and that He really does identify with our pain and redeem our suffering And God will do the same for you Expository Dictionary of Bible Words Stephen D. War in the Bible and Terrorism in the Twenty-first Century Richard S. Hess, E. A. Martens, 2008 In February 2004 Denver Seminary s annual Biblical Studies conference addressed the question of modern war and the teachings of biblical ethics regarding it A year earlier the invasion of Iraq had taken place The questions created by the outbreak of war prompted an urgency in the consideration of the topic Association for Christian Conferences Teaching and Service ACCTS provided ethicists and practitioners from within the military of both the U S and Great Britain Hess and Martens also solicited papers from leading theologians and advocates representing pacifist and just

Terrorism, Jihad, and the Bible John F. MacArthur, 2001-12-15 September 11 2001 saw the deadliest attack ever launched on American soil leaving us asking questions such as Why did God permit such a thing to happen Was the attack a divine judgment or was it merely an atrocity perpetrated by the forces of evil How can human beings be capable of such diabolical savagery in the name of religion And what is the right course of action for our government to take John MacArthur points us to the Bible for answers to these and many other questions arising out the recent atrocities He educates readers to the roots of the conflict linking the religious and political issues that underlie the current turmoil to the Old Testament

The Mind of Terror Tass Saada, 2016-07-01 What motivates Islamic terrorists What is in the mind of terror Our news reports from the Middle East cover events bombings massacres and suicide attacks Our newscasters take time to explain who the players are from Hezbollah to the Iranian Quds from ISIS to the Palestinian National Authority But there is something underneath these events and players that fuels atrocity after atrocity in the Middle East What is it Tass Saada provides the answer to that question as he delves into the mind of terror explaining what motivates extremist groups throughout the Middle East A former Muslim and a onetime sniper with Yasser Arafat's Fatah organization Tass has lived it himself At age 42 he steered his life in a radical new direction committing it to Jesus Tass not only describes the motivations and aspirations of those who live in the Middle East he also outlines a peaceful solution We can plant seeds of hope that will transform not only the Middle East but also our increasingly diverse neighborhoods at home Discover the mind behind terror and how to oppose its grip

Following Jesus in a Culture of Fear (The Christian Practice of Everyday Life) Scott Bader-Saye, 2007-06-01 Through politics marketing news programming and popular culture we are taught to fear often in ways that profit others But what does all this fear do to our moral lives as it forms or deforms our character and our judgment Drawing on Christian scripture and tradition Following Jesus in a Culture of Fear articulates a response to fear that resists an ethic of security in favor of fostering an ethic of risk The Christian virtues of hospitality peacefulness and generosity are presented as the way to defeat the counter virtues of suspicion preemption and control Pastors students and lay people will find this unique book both accessible and intriguing EXCERPT Do not be afraid We live in a time when this biblical refrain cannot be repeated too often Both John Paul II in 1978 and his successor Benedict XVI in 2005 used these words to begin their papacies Among all the things the church has to say to the world today this may be the most important No one has to be convinced that we live in fearful times though we are not always sure what we should be afraid of and why We suspect that our fears make us vulnerable to manipulation but we find it hard to quell the fear long enough to analyze how it is being produced and directed for the benefit of others One reason we are a more fearful culture today despite the fact that the dangers are not objectively greater than in the past is because some people have incentives and means to heighten manipulate and exploit our fears Fear is a strong motivator and so those who want and need to motivate others politicians advertisers media executives advocacy groups even the church turn to fear to bolster their message I call this the fear for profit syndrome and it is rampant We have become preoccupied with unlikely dangers that take on the status of imminent threats producing a culture where fear determines a disproportionate number of our personal and communal decisions The sense of ever increasing threats can overwhelm our ability to evaluate and respond proportionately to each new risk thus we allow fear to overdetermine our actions
