

It should be clear which ideas are yours and which belong to someone else.¹ Including sources in your text should be done “through quotation, paraphrasing, summarising, analysis, interpretation, discussion and evaluation of sources.”²

When citing sources in your text, “make sure they are placed where they belong.”³ The footnote number should be placed at the end of a sentence or phrase, after a quotation.

A reference list provides the full details of sources at the end of your assignment.⁴ Every source cited should be in your reference list, and vice versa.⁵

A referencing style is a set of formatting rules for citations and reference lists.⁶
