Becoming An Adult Stepchild Adjusting To A Parents New Marriage:

Becoming an Adult Stepchild Pearl Ketover Prilik, 1998-01-01 For many adult stepchildren the marriage of a parent is a complicated situation fraught with emotional difficulties as the existing family structure is reshaped through the introduction of new members and the realignment of familial roles and relationships A parent's marriage and the upheaval it generates can also mobilize long buried feelings within adult stepchildren including anger betrayal resentment and a sense of deprivation Until now the millions of adult stepchildren have not had a resource to help them address the psychological issues they face in this situation Written by an expert with substantial experience in stepfamily life Becoming an Adult Stepchild Adjusting to a Parent's New Marriage provides invaluable advice on how to examine the underlying issues and feelings engendered by a parent's marriage and use this knowledge to reduce the inherent tension in this situation In a caring and supportive manner Dr Prilik also urges readers to take advantage of the golden opportunities hidden in their parent's marriage including Initiating positive personal growth Reconciling with an estranged parent Reconnecting with a parent in ways that may enhance closeness with him or her Making changes or taking risks to improve their lives Learning how to cope with uncertainty and change Dr Prilik begins each chapter by posing a few questions on specific subjects and situations that challenge readers to examine their feelings attitudes and behavior toward their parent's marriage She then explores the underlying conflicts brought about by these particular circumstances and provides numerous vignettes to illustrate typical adult reactions to a parent's remarriage She also offers many suggestions on how readers can reduce the tension and acrimony that can develop during this transition Armed with this awareness and practical advice adult stepchildren can build more satisfying relationships within their new family structure and use this unique opportunity for profound personal growth
