Becoming Good Parents

Mukti Jain Campion

Becoming Good Parents:

Becoming Good Parents Mufid James Hannush, 2012-02-01 Becoming Good Parents goes beyond a psychological understanding of parenting to include a deeper explication of the philosophical moral and existential spiritual dimensions of parenting. It counters the contemporary notion that parents can be satisfied with simply being good enough in their parenting practices which encourages a sense of complacency. Through everyday examples illustrative use of Harper Lee's moral novel To Kill a Mockingbird and a reinterpretation of the theoretical viewpoints of psychologists Erik Erikson, Heinz Kohut and Rollo May along with philosophers Iris Murdoch and Michael Gelven, the author argues that the struggle toward perfection/goodness is a natural human impulse. Parenting provides an optimal context for the practice of character refinement which can potentially contribute to the psychological and spiritual growth of both parents and children. Ultimately the book demonstrates that by becoming good parents we become good persons. The ABC's of Becoming Super Parents Gerald P. Berner, 2007 More than a book The ABC's of Becoming Super Parents Opening the Door to the Best Children and a More Civilized Society is a message to the many dysfunctional parents of today on how to raise the best children, the children who will create a more civilized society. Becoming Parents and Overcoming Obstacles Emanuela Quagliata, 2018-05-01 There are many books that deal with pregnancy and maternity and a large number of magazines and articles on paediatric nursing that examine these subjects from different points of view. This volume is not a manual and is not intended to explain to future parents what to do and what to avoid. The objective is rather to look at the most significant and problematic aspects of this delicate phase of a woman's life and that of a couple. It seeks to offer a key to understand the deep significance and complexity of the path to follow to become parents and to face fears linked to the difficulty of procreation using the tools of observation and psychoanalytic listening. Reviewing several experiences of clinical work, the authors offer reflections on the personal experiences of women and couples and the difficulties which can be met when the desire for a child is disappointed. A maternity and parenting project can be frustrated by miscarriages and encounter the fear of infertility. How are the problems of sterility or spontaneous abortion experienced? Parenting Tips for All Parents John Lewis, 2012-02-20 If you are like most parents you probably want to raise healthy smart kids.
