Big Business and Government Neville Abraham, 1978 Government and British Civil Aerospace Keith Hayward, 1983 Local Partnership & the Unemployment Crisis in Britain Chris Moore, J.J. Richardson, Jeremy Moon, 2024-09-18 Originally published in 1989 this study provides an informed and critical analysis of local partnerships between the private and public sectors in response to the unemployment problems Until this book was published there had been little objective analysis of the workings of the local partnership model with big business This book assesses the contribution of local enterprise agencies and how they related to other dimensions of policy responses to unemployment An important element of the analysis is a number of local case studies of established partnerships in different parts of the United Kingdom The book discusses the factors that lead to effective local response in terms of organizational structures and networks and programmes of activity It places local factors in a wider political and economic context in order to provide a realistic assessment of the motives and impact of policy actors Intervention in the Mixed Economy Stephen Young, A.V. Lowe, 2025-11-21 Intervention in the Mixed Economy 1974 examines the problem of state intervention in mixed economies by analysing some of the most important aspects of British industrial policy of the early 1970s The discussion concentrates on the private sector and focuses on the increase in intervention in the period and the process of implementing these policies
