At Home On The World Markets Dutch Inter:

At Home on the World Markets Joost Jonker, Keetie Sluyterman, 2001-03-01 The Dutch economy has relied on trade for centuries During the seventeenth century the Netherlands experienced a Golden Age built largely on commercial enterprise and trade continues to be the golden link in the supply chain from producers to consumers Yet we know very little about the business of trade and the people involved in it What was the nature of their work and how did it evolve through the ages In the lavishly illustrated At Home on the World Markets Joost Jonker and Keetie Sluyterman look at mercantile dynasties such as the Trips and the Van Eeghens and companies such as the famous Dutch East Indian Company VOC and the modern trading company Hagemeyer that have been largely unstudied They describe the evolution of a unique economic sector that occupies a key position in the supply chain from producers to consumers

The Sea in World History Stephen K. Stein, 2017-04-24 This two volume set documents the essential role of the sea and maritime activity across history from travel and food production to commerce and conquest In all eras water transport has served as the cheapest and most efficient means of moving cargo and people over any significant distance Only relatively recently have railroads and aircraft provided an alternative Most of the world's bulk goods continue to travel primarily by ship over water Even today 95 percent of the cargo that enters and leaves the United States does so by ship Similarly people around the world rely on the sea for food and in recent years the sea has become an important source of oil and other resources with the longterm effects of our continuing efforts to extract resources from the sea further highlighting environmental concerns that range from pollution to the exhaustion of fish stocks This chronologically organized two volume reference addresses the history of the sea beginning with ancient civilizations 4000 to 1000 BCE and ending with the modern era 1945 to the present day Each of the eight chapters is further broken down into sections that focus on specific nations or regions offering detailed descriptions of that area of the world and shorter entries on specific topics individuals and events The book spans maritime history covering major seafaring peoples and nations famous explorers travelers and commanders events battles and wars key technologies including famous ships important processes and ongoing events such as piracy and the slave trade and more Readers will benefit from dozens of primary source documents ranging from ancient Egyptian tales of seafaring to texts by renowned travelers like Marco Polo Zheng He and Ibn Battuta that provide firsthand accounts from the age of discovery as well as accounts of battle from World War I and II and more modern accounts of the sea

The Familiarity of Strangers Francesca Trivellato, 2009-06-30 Taking a new approach to the study of cross cultural trade this book blends archival research with historical narrative and economic analysis to understand how the Sephardic Jews of Livorno Tuscany traded in regions near and far in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Francesca Trivellato tests assumptions about ethnic and religious trading diasporas and networks of exchange and trust Her extensive research in international archives including a vast cache of merchants letters written between 1704 and 1746 reveals a more nuanced view of the business relations between Jews and non Jews across the Mediterranean Atlantic Europe and the Indian Ocean than ever before The book argues that cross cultural trade was predicated on and generated familiarity among strangers but could coexist easily with religious prejudice It analyzes instances in which business cooperation among coreligionists and between strangers relied on language customary norms and social networks more than the progressive rise of state and legal institutions The Oxford Handbook of the Ends of Empire Martin Thomas, Andrew Stuart Thompson, 2018 The Oxford Handbook of the Ends of Empire offers the most comprehensive treatment of the causes course and consequences of the collapse of empires in the twentieth century The volume s contributors convey the global reach of decolonization analysing the ways in which European Asian and African empires disintegrated over the past century Beyond Banks Christiaan van Bochove, Juliette Levy, 2025-05-06 Scholars of credit markets have long focused on banks but pre modern as well as modern economies often relied on non bank credit This edited volume brings together international examples from across history that highlight how guilds innkeepers moneylenders notaries networks of family members and friends and religious institutions among others mobilized credit before and even along banks The volume operationalizes a common terminology and set of questions to allow for comparisons between the wide range of bank and non bank credit arrangements across the globe and across time It will be of interest to financial and economic historians economists and many other scholars in the humanities and social sciences

Compound Histories, 2017-11-13 Compound Histories Materials Governance and Production 1760 1840 offers a new view of the period during which Europe took on its modern character and globally dominant position By exploring the intertwined realms of production governance and materials it places chemists and chemistry at the center of processes most closely identified with the construction of the modern world This includes the interactive intensification of material and knowledge production the growth and management of consumption environmental changes regulation of materials markets landscapes and societies and practices embodied in political economy Rather than emphasize revolutionary breaks and the primacy of innovation driven change the volume highlights the continuities and accumulation of incremental changes that framed historical development Contributors are Robert G W Anderson Bernadette Bensaude Vincent Jos Ram n Bertomeu S nchez John R R Christie Joppe van Driel Frank A J L James Christine Lehman Lissa L Roberts Thomas le Roux Elena Serrano Anna Simmons Marie Th baud Sorger Sacha Tomic Andreas Weber Simon Werrett Business Networks in East Asian Capitalisms Jane Nolan, Chris Rowley, Malcolm Warner, 2016-09-16 Business Networks in East Asian Capitalisms Enduring Trends Emerging Patterns builds on the foundational studies conducted in the 1990s by gathering contemporary empirical and theoretical chapters which explore these themes in a comparative perspective The book includes contributions from authors working on the relationship between personal and business networks in countries including China Singapore Malaysia Taiwan Japan South Korea Vietnam Laos Cambodia and Thailand Authors emphasize enduring trends in social and business networks and or track new emerging patterns both within East Asian nations or between East Asia and other regions such as Europe Africa and the Americas Provides contemporary up to date empirical material and theoretical interpretation charting the influence of more recent globalizing trends and institutional change in the region Includes studies of networks within PRC between PRC and other regions and in Chinese communities Offers studies centered on Korean Japanese and South East Asian Networks Includes a geographical scope that will be broader than other books aiming to include studies of newly developing economies in South East Asia that share a common cultural heritage e g Vietnam

After Empires Giuliano Garavini,2012-10-25 A unique account of how decolonization affected European integration covering more than 20 years of the life of the European Community Explains the impact of Thirdworldism in western Europe Describes the significance of the 1973 oil shock beyond the Arab Israeli conflict Traces the tensions in the Atlantic arena in the 1970s and the quest for a European identity Uses a wide range of transnational archives governments international organizations political and economic actors After Empires describes how the end of colonial empires and the changes in international politics and economies after decolonization affected the European integration process Until now studies on European integration have often focussed on the search for peaceful relations among the European nations particularly between Germany and France or examined it as an offspring of the Cold War moving together with the ups and downs of transatlantic relations But these two factors alone are not enough to explain the rise of the European Community and its more recent transformation into the European Union

Market-Based Banking and the International Financial Crisis Iain Hardie,David J. Howarth,2013-08-29 This edited volume offers a study of national banking systems and explains how banking developed in the years preceding the international financial crisis that erupted in 2007 Its analysis of market based banking shows the impact of the financial crisis in eleven developed economies including all of the G7 economies
