At The Breaking Point:

Where Does it Happen? George Kouvaros, 2004 A good movie John Cassavetes has remarked will ask you questions you don't already know the answers to And in his films Cassavetes is as good as his word Taking up the radical question that Cassavetes's films consistently pose specifically where is the line between actor and character fiction and reality film and life George Kouvaros reveals the unique and illuminating position that Cassavetes's work occupies at the intersection of filmmaking and film theory Central to any understanding of Cassavetes's achievement is the issue of performance Looking at the work of Gena Rowlands Ben Gazzara and Cassavetes himself in films such as Faces A Woman under the Influence and The Killing of a Chinese Bookie Kouvaros shows how performative instances gestures words or glances open up intimations of dramas belonging neither strictly to these films nor to the everyday worlds in which they are immersed A major reassessment of the filmmaker as a formal experimenter Where Does It Happen gives Cassavetes his due as a filmmaker whose critical place in the modern cinema is only now becoming clear George Kouvaros is senior lecturer in the School of Theatre Film and Dance at the University of New South Wales Australia

The Breaking Point Mary Roberts Rinehart, 1922 Mary Roberts Rinehart August 12 1876 September 22 1958 was an American writer often called the American Agatha Christie although her first mystery novel was published 14 years before Christie's first novel in 1920 Rinehart is considered the source of the phrase The butler did it from her novel The Door 1930 although the novel does not use the exact phrase Rinehart is also considered to have invented the Had I But Known school of mystery writing with the publication of The Circular Staircase 1908 wikipedia.org Mary Roberts graduated from the Pittsburgh Training School for Nurses in 1896 That same year she married physician Stanley M Rinehart She and her husband started a family and she took up writing in 1903 as a result of difficulties created by financial losses Her first story appeared in Munsey's Magazine in 1903 The Circular Staircase 1908 her first book and first mystery was an immediate success and the following year The Man in Lower Ten which had been serialized earlier reinforced her popular success Thereafter she wrote steadily averaging about a book a year A long series of comic tales about the redoubtable Tish Letitia Carberry appeared as serials in the Saturday Evening Post over a number of years and as a series of novels beginning with The Amazing Adventures of Letitia Carberry 1911 Rinehart served as a war correspondent during World War I and later described her experiences in several books notably Kings Queens and Pawns 1915 She produced as well a number of romances and nine plays Most of the plays were written in collaboration with Avery Hopwood her greatest successes were Seven Days produced in New York in 1909 and The Bat derived from The Circular Staircase and produced in 1920 She remained best known however as a writer of mysteries and the growing popularity of that genre after World War II led to frequent republication of her works Her most memorable tales combined murder love ingenuity and humour in a style that was distinctly her own Her autobiography My Story appeared in 1931 and was revised in 1948 At Rinehart's death her books had sold more than 10 million copies britannica.com
