

The title 'Wanted' is rendered in a large, stylized, hand-drawn font. Each letter is composed of thick, dark strokes. The 'i' in the center of the word has a small, solid yellow circle positioned directly above it, resembling a bullet point or a drop. The letters are slightly irregular and slanted, giving the title a dynamic, informal feel.

At The Point Of Need Teaching Basic And Esl Writers:

At the Point of Need Marie Wilson Nelson, 1991 A richly detailed account of the experiences of teachers tutors and students in a university writing center whose main mission was to enable basic and ESL writers to handle college writing demands Scott Thornbury's 30 Language Teaching Methods Scott Thornbury, 2017 Everyone Can Write Peter Elbow, 2000-01-27 With Writing without Teachers OUP 1975 and Writing with Power OUP 1995 Peter Elbow revolutionized the teaching of writing His process method and its now commonplace free writing techniques liberated generations of students and teachers from the emphasis on formal principles of grammar that had dominated composition pedagogy This new collection of essays brings together the best of Elbow's writing since the publication of Embracing Contraries in 1987 The volume includes sections on voice the experience of writing teaching and evaluation Implicit throughout is Elbow's commitment to humanizing the profession and his continued emphasis on the importance of binary thinking and nonadversarial argument The result is a compendium of a master teacher's thought on the relation between good pedagogy and good writing it is sure to be of interest to all professional teachers of writing and will be a valuable book for use in composition courses at all levels Teaching/Writing in Thirdspaces Rhonda C. Grego, Nancy S. Thompson, 2008 Rhonda C. Grego and Nancy S. Thompson argue that because the studio is physically and institutionally outside but alongside both students other coursework and the hierarchy of the institution it represents a thirdspace a unique position in which to effect institutional change Teaching Writing in Thirdspaces provides an alternative approach to traditional basic writing courses that can be adopted in educational institutions of all types and at all levels BOOK JACKET Understanding ESL Writers Ilona Leki, 1992 Understanding ESL Writers A Guide for Teachers responds to the overwhelming concern non ESL faculty have expressed with the influx of ESL students into their classes Realizing Autonomy Kay Irie, Alison Stewart, 2011-11-25 Realizing Autonomy Practice and Reflection in Language Education Contexts presents critical practitioner research into innovative approaches to language learner autonomy Writing about experiences in a range of widely differing contexts the authors offer fresh insights and perspectives on the challenges and contradictions of learner autonomy Weaving Knowledge Together Carol Peterson Haviland, Maria Notarangelo, Lene Whitley-Putz, Thia Wolf, 2021-12-16 First published in 1998 In a 1996 review article in College English Elizabeth Rankin contrasted the method and epistemology of two recent books on writing pedagogy describing one as grounded in the experience of student writers and teachers and the other as academic Rankin's labels highlight one of the leading sources of tension in composition research the tension between practice and theory a tension that echoes in writing center research and publications This collection of chapters seeks to build on the inherent collaborativeness of writing centers capturing the voices of the student writers and tutors who are at the core of writing center work Critical English for Academic Purposes Sarah Benesch, 2001-03-01 Critical English for Academic Purposes Theory Politics and Practice is the first book to combine the theory and practice of two fields English for academic purposes and critical pedagogy English for academic purposes EAP grounds English language teaching in the cognitive and linguistic demands of academic situations tailoring instruction to specific rather than general purposes Critical pedagogy acknowledges students and teachers subject positions that is their class race gender and ethnicity and encourages them to question the status quo Critical English for academic purposes engages students in the types of activities they are asked to carry out in academic classes while inviting them to question and in some cases transform those activities as well as the conditions from which they arose It takes into account the real challenges non native speakers of English face in their discipline specific classes while viewing students as active participants who can help shape academic goals and assignments Critical English for Academic Purposes Theory Politics and Practice relates English for academic purposes and critical pedagogy revealing and problematizing the assumptions of both fields provides theoretical and practical responses to academic syllabi and other institutional demands to show that teachers can both meet target demands and take students subjectivities into account in a climate of negotiation and possibility offers rights analysis as a critical counterpart to needs analysis discusses the politics of coverage in lecture classes and proposes alternatives and features teaching examples that address balancing the curriculum for gender building community in an EAP class of students from diverse economic and social backgrounds students rights and organizing students to change unfavorable conditions This book is intended for undergraduate and graduate courses for preservice and in service ESL and EAP teachers It is also a professional book for those interested in critical approaches to teaching and EAP
