At The Threshold Of The Millennium:

ON THE THRESHOLD OF THE NEW MILLENNIUM. ,1990 Gravissimum Educationis Gerald M.

Cattaro,Charles J. Russo,2015-08-06 Gravissimus Educationis Golden Opportunities in American Catholic Education 50 Years after Vatican II reviews the development of American Catholic schools since the promulgation of Gravissimus Educationis the only document on education produced by the Ecumenical Council known as Vatican II This document literally translated as The Importance of Education addresses how extremely vital Catholic education in particular is in modern life Cattaro and Russo also reflect on changes that have transpired since the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore of 1884 This council forever changed the shape of nonpublic education in the United States in its decree that all parishes in the United States were to construct Catholic schools for the education of children This volume is also designed to benefit Catholic Educators in all at levels form primary to higher education The chapters in this book prepared by leading experts on various aspects of Catholic education or other forms of non public education in the United States provide a history as to the recent development on Catholic schools Gravissimus Educationis Golden Opportunities in American Catholic Education 50 Years after Vatican II provides the context of change and the current state of Catholic Schools in the United States and in some sense the global perspective The scope of this book goes beyond the professional educator in Catholic Schools as it also address the stakeholders of Catholic education such as parents who are consumers pastors religious educators and donors M.

Fethullah Gulen: Essays - Perspectives - Opinions Tughra Books,2004-01-01 An intellectual with a distinctive spiritual charisma a prolific writer and poet M Fethullah G len has been an extremely effective and popular scholar of Islam for the last 3 decades This work presents G len through a short biography a selection of various articles his views on modern education and its importance and how he has been presented in the media It is by no means a comprehensive presentation of his life and influence upon millions of people rather it is meant to serve as an introduction to those who desire a better understanding of G len s message and what it has accomplished over the years The Eucharist in the West Edward J.

Kilmartin,2015-09-22 In the light of its own history the Catholic theology of the Eucharist as it is generally understood today is revealed as a splinter tradition whose deficiencies call for fundamental reformulation The valid aspects of that theology for example the recovery of the role of the Holy Spirit in the new Roman Eucharistic Prayers must be identified and integrated with the faith and practice of the first theological millennium when the lex orandi was not so dominated by the lex credendi In the third theological millennium more attention to the content and structure of the classical Eucharistic Prayers of both East and West will result in a Catholic systematic theology of eucharistic sacrifice that is not only truer to its biblical and patristic foundations but also of ecumenical import closer to some of the theological insights of the Protestant Reformers These highlights of The Eucharist in the West illustrate the great value of this posthumous work Conceptually complete but in only rough draft form at the time of Father Kilmartin s death it has been edited and prepared for publication by Robert J

Daly SJ Chapter one describes the characteristics of the eucharistic theology of the Western Latin Fathers Chapter two identifies the more important orientations and developments of the Catholic tradition from early medieval Scholasticism up to the first part of the twelfth century Chapter three singles out the special contribution of early Scholasticism to Latin eucharistic theology Chapter four functions as a bridge from early Scholasticism to high Scholasticism by outlining the general approach to a synthetic theology of the Eucharist which was obtained at the beginning of the thirteenth century Chapter five treats eucharistic theology from high Scholasticism to the Council of Trent Chapter six summarizes the dogmatic teaching of the Council of Trent This is followed in Chapter seven by a treatment of salient features of post Tridentine Eucharistic theology Chapter eight includes an analysis of the practice and theology of Mass stipends Chapter nine includes a detailed analysis of Aquinas's theology of the eucharistic sacrifice Chapter ten offers an account of some recent contributions to the formulation of a theology of the eucharistic sacrifice which have contributed to the modern average Roman Catholic synthesis Robert J Daly SJ is a professor of theology at Boston College and former editor of Theological Studies Edward J Kilmartin SJ 1923 1994 professor for liturgical theology at the Pontifical Oriental Institute in Rome taught theology first at the Weston Jesuit School of Theology and later at Boston College He served as director of the doctoral program in liturgical studies at the University of Notre Dame The Millenium James Granville Legge, 1927

On the Threshold of the Third Millennium, 1990 At the Threshold of the Millennium Donovan R. Walling, 1995 The Best of "The Public Square". Richard John Neuhaus, 2001 Since its inception in 1990 the journal First Things has concluded each issue with Richard John Neuhaus's The Public Square His column has attracted the attention of America's most influential journalists opinion makers and intellectuals All who read it appreciate its serious discussions of religious and social topics its lively prose and its occasional dash of wicked humor This volume presents a sampling of the best of The Public Square Culled from columns written from 1996 to 2000 these thirty two insightful pieces range from reflections on theology philosophy and politics to education bioethics law and family life Each one demonstrates Neuhaus's authorial flair and keen intellect As Neuhaus argues public life is mainly about culture and at the heart of culture is morality and at the heart of morality is religion Few thinkers today can illumine this relationship as directly as Neuhaus The Politics of Aid Selectivity Wil Hout, 2007-06-28 The first extended analysis of selectivity policies of important bilateral and multilateral aid donors this book combines a policy analytical with a quantitative empirical approach Bringing out the conflicts that may exist between foreign assistance agendas and the desire of governments in developing countries to set priorities for their national development policies the author describes in detail the policies of aid selectivity adopted by the World Bank the Netherlands and the United States since the end of the 1990s including the underlying assumptions looks at key decisions related to a selection of developing countries compares policy making and different approaches to selectivity in the United Kingdom with those in developing countries Critical and analytical in style this book is among other areas an invaluable resource for students of various sub fields of development studies and policy analysis as well as appealing to researchers and policy makers working in the area of foreign assistance across the globe The Third Millenium ,1996-09 To assess the future of small business micro business women owned business high technology entrepreneurs commercial banking venture capital investment banking small business entrepreneurship education futurists media former SBA administrators chief counsels for advocacy business opinion leaders family business fast growth businesses entrepreneurs Charts tables graphs
