X.

Seaman, 2013-03-06 The Holy Spirit's ministry of illumination is a commonly misunderstood doctrine both pragmatically and theologically As a result this divine activity is often neglected but it should be recognized that it is indispensable for the hermeneutical endeavor This distinctive work seeks to take an apparently abstract concept and make it concrete by establishing proper categories and definitions for the doctrine of illumination while reemphasizing the cooperation of Word and Spirit In doing so this book treats issues such as the relationship between illumination and other hermeneutical doctrines the accessibility of the Spirit's illumination when interpreting the Scriptures and the question of unregenerate biblical interpretation Accordingly Illumination and Interpretation presents a biblical theological evaluation of the Spirit's work of illumination for the transformative purpose of understanding how to appropriate this vital hermeneutical doctrine into one's faith and practice American Book Publishing Record Cumulative 1998 R R Bowker Publishing,1999-03 Do This in Remembrance of Me Bradly Billings,2006-06-09 This title posits a new explanation of the longstanding textual problem affecting the Words of Institution in St Luke's Gospel by arguing that the social situation of the early Christian community explains why such emendations were made By examining the manner in which manuscripts function as windows into the social world of early Christianity Billings provides a fruitful study of the longstanding gap in our knowledge of a significant textual problem represented by the Western Text of Luke Human Dignity and Contemporary Liberalism Brad Stetson,1998-01-21 The author of Human Dignity and Contemporary Liberalism argues that the nature and application of contemporary liberalism is significantly dissonant with the deepest inclinations and most persistent moral sentiments of human beings and it therefore distorts human self understanding and defaces human dignity This mismatch between human nature and the essence of contemporary liberalism hobbles our public life and the author suggests is the Gordian knot that must be loosed if the new millennium is to manifest a more humane and satisfying American civitas This wide ranging book begins with a discussion of certain consequences and implications of contemporary liberalism's heavy emphasis on individual rights moving into a reflection on two general categories of human dignity suggesting that there is in contemporary liberal thought a lack of clarity concerning the meaning and gravity of this concept The focus then shifts to the idea of desert or deservingness The viability of desert rightly understood is advanced as a useful general concept for understanding American public life and as an important tool for restoring a measure of common sense to our politics The second section of the book concentrates on the actual application of contemporary liberalism's values as it has occurred since the 1960s particularly in the culturally contentious areas of race and abortion Emerging from this survey is an unflattering image of a political paradigm which according to the author must be abandoned or at least radically revised if America is to strike a posture of moral intensity and genuine social understanding The Heart of Economic Reform Donald Daochi Tong,2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2002 Banking reform lies at the heart of economic reform in China and is central to sustaining the country's high economic growth This timely book covers an important economic policy issue in China namely the existing and potential roles of the financial sector in the development of the Chinese economy It explores for the first time the relationship between the reforms of the financial sector of state owned enterprises SOEs and of the social welfare system Donald D Tong presents a wealth of valuable data accompanied by original insights and interpretations The author also examines the original estimates of the cost of the social welfare burden given that social services such as old age pension housing healthcare and education are provided by the SOEs rather than by the private or public sector directly
