Brush Country Woman:

Brush Country Woman Ada Morehead Holland,1988 Texas Women on the Cattle Trails Sara R. Massey,2006 Tells the stories of sixteen women who drove cattle up the trail from Texas during the last half of the nineteenth century Texas Through Women's Eyes Judith N. McArthur,Harold L. Smith,2010-08-25 Winner Liz Carpenter Award For Research in the History of Women Texas State Historical Association 2010 Texas women broke barriers throughout the twentieth century winning the right to vote expanding their access to higher education entering new professions participating fully in civic and political life and planning their families Yet these major achievements have hardly been recognized in histories of twentieth century Texas By contrast Texas Through Women's Eyes offers a fascinating overview of women's experiences and achievements in the twentieth century with an inclusive focus on rural women working class women and women of color McArthur and Smith trace the history of Texas women through four eras They discuss how women entered the public sphere to work for social reforms and the right to vote during the Progressive era 1900 1920 how they continued working for reform and social justice and for greater opportunities in education and the workforce during the Great Depression and World War II 1920 1945 how African American and Mexican American women fought for labor and civil rights while Anglo women laid the foundation for two party politics during the postwar years 1945 1965 and how second wave feminists 1965 2000 promoted diverse and sometimes competing goals including passage of the Equal Rights Amendment reproductive freedom gender equity in sports and the rise of the New Right and the Republican party Texas Rupert N. Richardson,Cary D. Wintz,Angela Boswell,Adrian Anderson,Ernest Wallace,2021-05-31 Now in its 11th edition Texas The Lone Star State offers a balanced scholarly overview of the second largest state in the United States spanning from prehistory to the twenty first century Organized chronologically this comprehensive survey introduces undergraduates to the varied history of Texas with an accessible narrative and over 100 illustrations and maps This new edition broadens the discussion of postwar social and political dynamics within the state including the development of key industries and changing demographics Other new features include New maps reflecting county by county results for the most recent presidential elections Expanded discussions on immigration and border security The effects of the COVID 19 pandemic in Texas and a look to the future Updated bibliographies to reflect the most recent scholarship This textbook is essential reading for students of American history The Young Woman's Journal ,1920 Collier's ,1910 Cowgirls of the Rodeo Mary Lou LeCompte,2000 In this first substantial study of rodeo women Mary Lou LeCompte surveys the early rodeo cowgirls achievements as professional athletes the near demise of women's rodeo events during World War II and the phenomenal success of the Women's Professional Rodeo Association in regaining lost ground for rodeo cowgirls Recalling an extraordinary chapter in women's history as well as the history of American sport Cowgirls of the Rodeo contributes to a deeper understanding of the challenges facing women in the American West and in American sport Texas Women Writers Sylvia Ann Grider,Lou

Halsell Rodenberger, 1997 A critical survey of over 150 years of Texas women writers including fiction and nonfiction authors poets and dramatists

Portraits of Women Gamaliel Bradford, The nine portraits contained in this volume are preliminary studies or sketches for the series of portraits of American women which will follow my Union portraits Such a collection of portraits of women will certainly fill a most important section in the gallery of historical likenesses selected from the whole of American history which it is my wish to complete if possible There is always a certain impertinence about a man's attempt to portray the characters of women And this impertinence is not got rid of by the charming but not wholly felicitous epigraph of Sainte Beuve's Portraits de Femmes Avez vous donc t femme Monsieur pour pr tendre ainsi nous conn itre Non Madame je ne suis pas le devin Tir sias je ne suis qu'un humble mortel qui vous a beaucoup aim es There is however an equal impertinence in trying to portray the characters of men indeed of anybody but one's self and though this last undertaking is always delightful it is apt to lead to even more astonishing results than accompany one's attempts upon others While endeavoring constantly to strengthen and deepen the accuracy of my portraits as regards mere fact I yet become more and more convinced that their value must be more in suggestion and stimulation than in any reliable or final presentment of character Such presentments do not exist The selection of portraits in this volume has grown in a rather haphazard way Although the types depicted differ from one another sometimes with marked contrast still if I had planned the series deliberately as a whole I should have picked out figures more representative of entirely different lines of life A disadvantage much more marked in portraying women than in portraying men is the necessity of dealing with exceptions rather than with average personages The psychographer must have abundant material and usually it is women who have lived exceptional lives that leave such material behind them The psychography of queens and artists and authors and saints is little if any more interesting than that of your mother or mine or of the first shopgirl we meet I would paint the shopgirl's portrait with the greatest pleasure but the material is lacking It will be noted also that none of these portraits presents the modern woman Eug nie de Gu rin is the latest in date and she is about as modern as Eve The projection of woman into the very middle of the stage of active life her participation on equal terms in almost all the lines of man's achievement are effecting the vastest social revolution since the appearance of Christianity The outcome of this revolution is something no man or woman can foresee But its most obvious and perhaps principal effect is in moulding the life character and habits of man Woman already dominates our manners our morals our literature our stage our private finances She proposes to dominate our politics And it is by no means sure that she will not end by the subjugation of our intelligence This feminine supremacy obtains if I am correctly informed in the kingdom of the spiders and also according to some seers in the most advanced development of the planetary worlds While such a conquest must of course to some extent react upon the conqueror it seems probable that the fundamental instincts of the feminine temperament are what they were a thousand or two thousand years ago and that the new woman remains the same old woman in a little different garb which propensity to a little different garb is the oldest thing about her As I have already explained in the preface to Union Portraits the word Portrait is very unsatisfactory in spite of the high authority of Sainte Beuve Analogies between different arts are always misleading and this particular analogy is particularly objectionable Critics otherwise kindly have urged that a portrait takes a man only at one special moment of his life and may therefore be quite untrue to the larger lines of his character This is perfectly just and the word psychographs should be substituted for portraits Psychography aims at precisely the opposite of photography It seeks to extricate from the fleeting shifting many colored tissue of a man s long life those habits of action usually known as qualities of character which are the slow product of inheritance and training and which once formed at a comparatively early age usually alter little and that only by imperceptible degrees The art of psychography is to disentangle these habits from the immaterial inessential matter of biography to illustrate them by touches of speech and action that are significant and by those only and thus to burn them into the attention of the reader not by any means as a final or unchangeable verdict but as something that cannot be changed without vigorous thinking on the part of the reader himself Life and Light for Woman ,1889
