it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Abundance Andrew Lansdown,2020-12-01 Andrew Lansdown s latest poetry collection Abundance contains poems from eleven of his earlier collections and poems that are previously uncollected These poems gain power from the poet s mastery of poetic form and technique They range widely in theme tone style and subject from an aboriginal man playing the didgeridoo in prison to a widow addressing a prophet in Phoenicia from kangaroos crossing a firebreak to a man asleep in a library from the emptiness of black bamboo to the fullness of a father s heart from a pregnant mother dying for the faith in shogunal Japan to the poet s mother joining an American style sacred harp choir in heaven This collection offers readers an abundance Rewriting God Elaine Lindsay,2021-11-22 Women are rarely if ever mentioned in commentaries upon Australian Christianity and spirituality Only exceptional women are recognized as authorities on religious matters Why is this so Does it matter Don t people from the same religious tradition share similar experiences of the divine regardless of their gender Rewriting God asks whether women have been writing about the divine and whether their insights are different from those contained in malestream accounts of Australian Christianity and spirituality An analysis of the writings of popular theologians and religious commentators over the last twenty years suggests that the most popular form of spirituality among Australian theologians is Desert Spirituality An analysis of women s autobiographical writings however suggests that the desert is irrelevant to many women s spiritual experiences This book through a close investigation of the fictions of Thea Astley Elizabeth Jolley and Barbara Hanrahan attempts to posit alternative forms of women s spirituality and to signal ways in which this spirituality is already being expressed From the evidence gathered here it becomes obvious that traditional expressions of Australian Christianity and spirituality are gender specific and that they have functioned to deny women s religious experiences and to silence their claims to equality in the sight and service of the divine It becomes obvious too that women have been developing their own forms of religious expression and that these may be expected to supplant gradually withering images of Desert Spirituality Whether this new imagery will strengthen Australian Christianity or whether it merely marks a decline in the authority of Christianity remains a moot point Douglas Stewart Susan P. Ballyn Jenney,1996 Karl Rahner, Culture and Evangelization Anthony Mellor,2019-05-15 The situation of religious institutional diminishment in many Western countries requires new approaches to the proclamation of Christian faith As a response to these complexities Karl Rahner suggested a mystagogic approach as a future pathway for theology A mystagogical approach seeks modes of spiritual and theological conversation which engage the religious imagination and draws upon personal experiences of transcendence and religious sensibility In Karl Rahner Culture and Evangelization New Approaches in an Australian Setting Anthony Mellor develops a reflective process of contemporary mystagogia describing how different fields of engagement require different patterns of mystagogical conversation While focussing on the Australian setting these differentiate arenas of engagement are also applicable to other cultural settings and offer fresh perspectives for evangelization today
