Another World Colors Textures And Patterns Of The Deep:

Philosophy for a Better World Floris Van Den Berg, 2013-06-04 After reading this book the world won't look the same. Imagine yourself confined to a wheelchair or living within the severely constricted lifestyle options of a woman in Saudi Arabia or being a homosexual in a homophobic society or a coffee farmer in Ethiopia or a cow on a factory farm or growing up impoverished in a developing country or living 500 years from now when future generations may be negatively impacted by what we do today. Evens has long been considered one of the country's leading contemporary architects who aspires to create the complete living environment in the same vein as Gil Schafer, Bobby McAlpine, Ray Booth, and Stanley Dixon. His inspiration is drawn from classical traditions and informed by contemporary indoor/outdoor life. In this case, the indoor/outdoor life of California. Evens explains the core design values that bring unique and compelling force to his work: crafting architecture that speaks to people. Evens's projects are stylistically diverse, from a Spanish Colonial Revival estate in Malibu overlooking the Pacific to an American farmhouse-inspired residence in the golden hills of Southern California to a gracious ranch house embedded within the old oak trees studding the coastal landscape of Montecito. Natural materials such as wood, stone, and brick form the foundations, walls, and ceilings of these subtly luxurious spaces, while nature itself plays a considered role that is at once complementary and intricately conjoined with the work. Another World Dos Winkel, Kalli De Meyer, 2005 Mesmerizing color, intricate patterns, and mind-bending shapes are on display in this unique collection of underwater images. Coupled with an informative text on the ecology of coral reefs, the photographs are a reminder that many of the wonders of the universe lie waiting to be discovered on Earth. Color Palette Mastery Barrett
